PROXY STATEMENT FOR
2001 ANNUAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
, 200

The enclosed form of proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors to be used at the 2001 annual meeting of stockholders to be held at _____, Austin, Texas at _____, on _____, 200 .

We will bear the entire cost of solicitation of proxies, including preparation, assembly, printing and mailing of this proxy statement, the proxy and any additional information furnished to you. Copies of solicitation materials will be furnished to banks, brokerage houses, fiduciaries and custodians holding in their names shares of our common stock beneficially owned by others to forward to such beneficial owners. We may reimburse persons representing beneficial owners of common stock for their costs of forwarding solicitation materials to such beneficial owners. Original solicitation of proxies by mail may be supplemented by telephone, telegram or personal solicitation by our directors, officers or other regular employees. No additional compensation will be paid to directors, officers or other regular employees for such services.

VOTING SECURITIES OUTSTANDING; QUORUM

The record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of and vote at the annual meeting was the close of business December 3, 2001. At the close of business on December 3, 2001, there were _____ shares of our common stock, $.01 par value, issued and outstanding, each entitled to one vote on all matters properly brought before the annual meeting. There are no cumulative voting rights.

The presence in person or by proxy of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote as of the record date is necessary to constitute a quorum at the annual meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are treated as present at the meeting and are therefore counted to determine a quorum. If a quorum is not present, the stockholders entitled to vote who are present in person or represented by proxy at the annual meeting have the power to adjourn the meeting from time to time, without notice other than an adjournment at the meeting, until a quorum is present or represented. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum is present, any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the annual meeting as originally notified.

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the annual meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors. The sale of our videoconferencing systems products division and the amendment to our certificate of incorporation must be approved by the holders of a majority of all the outstanding shares of common stock on the record date, whether or not represented at the annual meeting. The amendment to the 1996 Stock Option Plan, the amendment to the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan, the amendment to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan and the ratification of the appointment of independent auditors must be approved by holders of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the annual meeting and entitled to vote thereon.

Abstentions may be specified on all proposals except the election of directors. Abstentions, with respect to any proposal other than the election of directors, will have the same effect as a vote against such proposal. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors, the amendment to the 1996 Stock Option Plan, the amendment to the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan, the amendment to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan or the ratification of independent auditors. With regard to the election of directors, votes may be cast in favor of or withheld from each nominee; votes that are withheld will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect. Since the Delaware General Corporation Law requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote on the proposal to approve the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division and the amendment to our certificate of incorporation, a "broker non-vote" on such proposals will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division and the amendment to our certificate of incorporation.

SUMMARY TERM SHEET OF SALE OF ASSETS OF VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION

The following summary briefly describes the material terms of the proposed sale of substantially all of the assets used in our videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation. This summary does not contain all the information that may be important for you to consider when evaluating the proposed transaction. We encourage you to read this proxy statement before voting.

Pursuant to an asset purchase agreement, we will sell and transfer to VTEL Products Corporation substantially all of the assets used in the operation of our videoconferencing systems products division, which produces videoconferencing systems and related peripherals. VTEL Products Corporation is a newly formed private company organized by Robert R. Swem, the Vice President -- Manufacturing of our videoconferencing systems products division and Daniel F. Nix and Richard P. Ford, both current executives in our videoconferencing systems products division, to acquire this division from us.

REASONS FOR THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION (SEE PAGE 25)

We are proposing to sell our videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation because we believe the terms of the asset purchase agreement are in the best interests of our company and our stockholders. The board of directors has identified various benefits that are likely to result from the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. The board of directors believes the sale of that division will:

- allow us to devote substantially all of our energies and resources to development of our Forgent Solutions business;
- allow us to compete more effectively through Forgent Solutions as a reseller and servicer of multiple vendors' products by disassociating our company from our VTEL product line. It is difficult to expand our business of selling and servicing other manufacturers' products as long as we are associated or identified with a manufacturer of videoconferencing systems products like those of the VTEL product line; and

- allow us to direct our focus to potentially better overall returns from our Forgent Solutions business, as opposed to the returns that have been produced by the combined Forgent Solutions and VTEL products business.

These and other reasons for approving and recommending the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division are discussed further in this document.

TERMS OF THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT (SEE PAGE 38)

WHAT IS BEING SOLD (SEE PAGE 38)

We are selling to VTEL Products Corporation substantially all of the assets used in the operation of our videoconferencing systems products division which produces videoconferencing systems and related peripherals.

WHAT IS BEING RETAINED (SEE PAGE 39)

We are retaining certain assets associated with our videoconferencing products division, including:

- all patents, software, know-how and copyrights used in connection with the videoconferencing systems products division, including all rights to receive or recover property, debt or damages on a cause of action relating to our intellectual property associated with the videoconferencing systems products division, other than certain rights licensed to VTEL Products Corporation;
- certain accounts receivable of the videoconferencing systems products division; and
- any cash, cash equivalents or marketable securities.

ASSUMED LIABILITIES (SEE PAGE 39)

VTEL Products Corporation will assume only certain specified liabilities, including:

- all obligations, debts and liabilities arising after the closing date of the asset purchase agreement pursuant to the contracts assumed by VTEL Products Corporation;
- all obligations, debts and liabilities incurred in VTEL Products Corporation's operation or control of the assets it acquires that relate to events occurring after the closing date; and
- accrued vacation for certain of our employees hired by VTEL Products Corporation.

WHAT WE WILL RECEIVE (SEE PAGE 39)

In connection with the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division, we will receive the following consideration:

- $500,000 in cash, payable at the closing;
- a secured subordinated promissory note in the original principal amount of $2,025,000, due 90 days after the closing, subject to adjustment as described below under the heading "The Asset Purchase Agreement -- Consideration;"
- a secured subordinated promissory note in the original principal amount of $5,000,000, due five and one-half years after the closing, subject to adjustment as described below under the heading "The Asset Purchase Agreement -- Consideration;" and
- shares of common stock of VTEL Products Corporation equal to approximately 19.9% of VTEL Products Corporation's fully diluted equity on the closing date.

In conjunction with the closing of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division, we will enter into a general license agreement whereby VTEL Products Corporation will have certain non-exclusive rights in and to certain patents, software, proprietary know-how and information of our company currently used in the operation of the videoconferencing systems products division. We will also enter into a right of first refusal agreement whereby we will agree to offer to sell the shares of common stock of VTEL Products Corporation that we receive as partial consideration for the videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation before selling the shares to a third party.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE 2001 ANNUAL MEETING

Q: WHAT IS THE PROPOSAL RELATING TO THE ELECTION OF DIRECTORS THAT I WILL BE VOTING ON AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: You will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to elect the following individuals to the board of directors: Richard N. Snyder, F. H. (Dick) Moeller, Gordon H. Matthews, T. Gary Trimm, Kathleen A. Cote, and James H. Wells.

Q: WHAT IS THE PROPOSAL RELATING TO THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION THAT I WILL BE VOTING ON AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: You will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve the sale by us of substantially all of the assets used in our videoconferencing systems products division pursuant to the asset purchase agreement, dated September 28, 2001, between our company and VTEL Products Corporation. The asset purchase agreement is attached to this proxy statement as Annex A.

Q: WHY IS OUR COMPANY PROPOSING TO SELL ITS VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION?

A: We are proposing to sell our videoconferencing systems products division to continue our overall effort to shift our company from being a hardware company to being a services and software company. The sale of the videoconferencing systems products division will allow us to focus on the services portion of our business. While we foresee the market for videoconferencing equipment continuing to grow, our management believes that greater overall growth and profit opportunities going forward exist in improving industry wide multi-vendor platform interoperability and in the integration and management of videoconferencing networks, all of which are core competencies of what will be Forgent Networks, Inc.

Q: WHAT IS THE PROPOSAL RELATING TO THE AMENDMENT TO OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION THAT I WILL BE VOTING ON AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: You will be asked to consider and vote upon a proposal to approve an amendment to our certificate of incorporation to change the name of our company from VTEL Corporation to Forgent Networks, Inc. A form of the amendment is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B.

Q: WHY IS OUR COMPANY PROPOSING TO CHANGE ITS NAME TO FORGENT NETWORKS, INC.?

A: We are proposing to change our name to Forgent Networks, Inc. to reflect our new focus as a provider of end-to-end visual communications solutions. Further, VTEL Products Corporation intends to conduct the business acquired from us under the name "VTEL" so as to continue to enjoy the goodwill built up in that tradename. We have agreed with VTEL Products Corporation to change our name from VTEL Corporation, subject to the approval by our stockholders. If the amendment to our certificate of incorporation changing our name is not approved, we would be obligated under the asset purchase agreement to grant an exclusive, perpetual and irrevocable license to VTEL Products Corporation to use the name "VTEL Products" and any derivations of that name for any purpose throughout the world.

Q: WHAT IS THE PROPOSAL RELATING TO THE AMENDMENT TO OUR COMPANY'S 1996 STOCK OPTION PLAN THAT I WILL BE VOTING ON AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: You will be asked to consider and act upon a proposal to approve an amendment to the 1996 Stock Option Plan to increase the number of shares of our common stock issuable under the plan upon the exercise of stock options granted pursuant to the plan from 2,700,000 shares to 3,800,000 shares.

Q: WHY IS OUR COMPANY PROPOSING TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK ISSUABLE UNDER THE 1996 STOCK OPTION PLAN?

A: We are proposing to increase the number of available shares under the 1996 Stock Option Plan because as of October 31, 2001, only 200,593 shares of common stock remained available for issuance under the plan. By increasing the number of shares available under the 1996 Stock Option Plan, the board of directors believes that the 1996 Stock Option Plan will continue to be a useful stock-related benefit program for attracting and retaining employees and providing additional incentive for all employees to promote the success of our company.

Q: WHAT IS THE PROPOSAL RELATING TO THE AMENDMENT TO OUR COMPANY'S 1992 DIRECTOR STOCK OPTION PLAN THAT I WILL BE VOTING ON AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: You will be asked to consider and act upon a proposal to approve an amendment to the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan to modify the formula pursuant to which additional options may be granted to provide that nonemployee directors will continue to receive an automatic grant of an option to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock upon initial election or appointment to the board of directors. Thereafter, in lieu of the existing formula grant, each nonemployee director will receive options to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock on each anniversary date of the nonemployee director's election or appointment to the board of directors.

Q: WHY IS OUR COMPANY PROPOSING TO INCREASE THE FORMULA OPTION GRANTS TO NONEMPLOYEE DIRECTORS?

A: We are proposing to increase the formula option grants to nonemployee directors under the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan because, as a result of a review of market data by the board of directors, the board of directors believes that the amendment is necessary in order to enhance the usefulness of the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan in attracting and retaining nonemployee directors and providing additional incentive for nonemployee directors to promote the success of our company.

Q: WHAT IS THE PROPOSAL RELATING TO THE AMENDMENT TO OUR COMPANY'S EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN THAT I WILL BE VOTING ON AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: You will be asked to consider and act upon a proposal to approve an amendment to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan to increase the number of shares of our common stock that each employee may purchase under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan from 1,200 shares to 2,500 shares per quarter.

Q: WHY IS OUR COMPANY PROPOSING TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK THAT EACH EMPLOYEE MAY PURCHASE UNDER THE EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN?

A: The board of directors believes that by increasing the number of shares that the employees may purchase under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the plan will continue to be a useful stock-related benefit program for attracting and retaining employees and providing additional incentive for all employees to promote the success of our company.

Q: WHAT IS THE PROPOSAL RELATING TO THE RATIFICATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS' APPOINTMENT OF INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS THAT I WILL BE VOTING ON AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: You will be voting to ratify the board of directors' appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, independent accountants, as our independent auditors for the year ending July 31, 2002.

Q: WHO IS SOLICITING MY PROXY?

A: Your board of directors.

Q: HOW DOES THE BOARD RECOMMEND THAT I VOTE ON THE MATTERS PROPOSED?

A: Your board unanimously recommends that stockholders vote "FOR" each of the proposals submitted at the annual meeting.

Q: WILL THE BOARD RECEIVE AN OPINION AS TO THE FAIRNESS OF THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION FROM A THIRD PARTY?

A: Yes. In arriving at its determination that the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division is fair to, and in the best interests of, our company, the board has considered a number of factors, including a verbal opinion of our financial advisor, SWS Securities, Inc., as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to our company of the consideration to be received in the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. The opinion is addressed to the board and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how to vote with respect to matters relating to the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. For a full description of the written opinion of SWS Securities, Inc. that we expect to receive, see the section titled "Opinion of Our Financial Advisor" on page 25. To review the text of the opinion, see Annex C to this proxy statement.

Q: WILL ANY OF THE PROCEEDS FROM THE SALE OF THE VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION BE DISTRIBUTED TO ME AS A STOCKHOLDER?

A: No. We intend to retain the proceeds and use them in connection with our future business plan.

Q: CAN I STILL SELL MY SHARES?

A: Yes. Neither the asset purchase agreement, the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division assets nor the amendment to our certificate of incorporation will affect your right to sell or otherwise transfer your shares of our common stock.

Q: WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION IS NOT APPROVED?

A: If the sale is not approved, we will not complete the proposed sale, we will retain and continue to operate this division and we will continue to assess the feasibility of available alternatives, including the possible retention and continued operation of the division and possibly continued assessment of other disposition or liquidation alternatives that may arise, if any.

Q: WHAT WILL HAPPEN IF THE AMENDMENT TO OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION IS NOT APPROVED?

A: Our company name will remain "VTEL Corporation." If the proposed sale is not approved, but the amendment is approved, we will nonetheless file the amendment and change our name to "Forgent Networks, Inc." If the proposed sale is approved but the amendment changing our name is not approved, we would be obligated under the asset purchase agreement to grant an exclusive, perpetual and irrevocable license to VTEL Products Corporation to use the name "VTEL Products" and any derivations of that name for any purpose throughout the world.

Q: WHO IS ENTITLED TO VOTE AT THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: Only holders of record of our common stock as of the close of business on December 3, 2001 will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the annual meeting.

Q: WHEN AND WHERE IS THE ANNUAL MEETING?

A: The annual meeting of our stockholders will be held at _____, Austin, Texas, on _____, 2001, at _____.

Q: IF MY SHARES ARE HELD IN "STREET NAME" BY MY BROKER, WILL MY BROKER VOTE MY SHARES FOR ME?

A: Your broker may not be permitted to exercise voting discretion with respect to some of the matters to be acted upon. Thus, if you do not give your broker or nominee specific instructions, your shares may not be voted on those matters, and will not be counted in determining the number of shares necessary for approval. You should follow the directions provided by your broker regarding how to instruct your broker to vote your shares.

Q: MAY I CHANGE MY VOTE AFTER I HAVE MAILED MY SIGNED PROXY CARD?

A: Yes. Just send in a written revocation or a later dated, signed proxy card before the annual meeting or simply attend the annual meeting and vote in person. Simply attending the annual meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy; you must vote at the annual meeting.

Q: WHAT DO I NEED TO DO NOW?

A: PLEASE VOTE YOUR SHARES AS SOON AS POSSIBLE, SO THAT YOUR SHARES MAY BE REPRESENTED AT THE ANNUAL MEETING. You may vote by signing and dating your proxy card and mailing it in the enclosed return envelope, or you may vote in person at the annual meeting. Because a vote of a majority of our outstanding shares is required to approve the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division and the amendment to our certificate of incorporation, your failure to vote is the same as your voting against the sale and the amendment.

Q: WHAT ARE THE UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION TO THE STOCKHOLDERS?

A: We do not expect that the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division will result in any federal income tax consequences to our stockholders.

Q: WILL STOCKHOLDERS HAVE APPRAISAL RIGHTS?

A: No. Under Delaware law you will have no appraisal rights as a result of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division.

Q: WHOM SHOULD I CALL IF I HAVE QUESTIONS?

A: If you have questions about any of the proposals on which you are voting, you may call Jay Peterson, our chief financial officer, at 512-437-2700.

At the annual meeting, you will be asked:

- to elect six directors to the board of directors to hold office until the next annual meeting of stockholders or until their respective successors are duly elected and qualified;
- to approve the sale of substantially all of the assets used in the operation of our videoconferencing systems products division, pursuant to an asset purchase agreement between our company and VTEL Products Corporation, a newly formed private company;
- to approve an amendment to our certificate of incorporation to change our name from VTEL Corporation to Forgent Networks, Inc.;

- to consider and act upon a proposal to approve an amendment to our 1996 Stock Option Plan to increase the number of shares of our common stock issuable under the 1996 Stock Option Plan upon the exercise of stock options granted pursuant to the 1996 Stock Option Plan from 2,700,000 shares to 3,800,000 shares;
- to consider and act upon a proposal to approve an amendment to our 1992 Director Stock Option Plan to modify the formula pursuant to which additional options may be granted to provide that nonemployee directors will continue to receive an automatic grant of an option to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock upon initial election or appointment to the board of directors. Thereafter, in lieu of the existing formula grant described under the heading "Proposal to Amend VTEL Corporation 1992 Director Stock Option Plan (Item 5)" below, each nonemployee director will receive options to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock on each anniversary date of the nonemployee director's election or appointment to the board of directors;
- to consider and act upon a proposal to approve an amendment to our Employee Stock Purchase Plan to increase the number of shares of our common stock that each employee may purchase under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan from 1,200 shares to 2,500 shares per quarter;
- to ratify the board of directors' appointment of Ernst & Young LLP, independent accountants, as our independent auditors for the year ending July 31, 2002; and
- to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

The board of directors knows of no other matters to be presented for action at the annual meeting. If any other matters properly come before the annual meeting, however, the persons named in the proxy will vote on such other matters in accordance with their best judgment. This includes a motion to adjourn or postpone the annual meeting to solicit additional proxies. However, no proxy voted against any of the proposals will be voted in favor of an adjournment or postponement to solicit additional votes in favor of approval of those proposals.

RECORD DATE; STOCKHOLDERS ENTITLED TO VOTE

Holders of record of our shares of common stock at the close of business on December 3, 2001 will be entitled to vote on all matters at the annual meeting. Each share of common stock will be entitled to one vote. On December 3, 2001, a total of shares of common stock were outstanding.

QUORUM

A majority of the voting power of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote, represented in person or by proxy, will be required to constitute a quorum for the annual meeting.

VOTE REQUIRED

Directors are elected by a plurality of the votes of the shares present in person or represented by proxy at the annual meeting and entitled to vote on the election of directors. The sale of our videoconferencing systems products division and the amendment to our certificate of incorporation must be approved by the holders of a majority of all the outstanding shares of common stock on the record date, whether or not present or represented at the annual meeting. The amendment to the 1996 Stock Option Plan, the amendment to the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan, the amendment to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan and the ratification of the appointment of independent auditors must be approved by holders of a majority of the shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy at the annual meeting and entitled to vote thereon.

BOARD RECOMMENDATION

The board of directors recommends that an affirmative vote be cast in favor of each of the proposals listed in the proxy card.

VOTING YOUR SHARES

The board of directors is soliciting proxies from our stockholders. By completing and returning the accompanying proxy, you will be authorizing Jay C. Peterson and Richard N. Snyder to vote your shares. If your proxy is properly signed and dated it will be voted as you direct. If you attend the annual meeting in person, you may vote your shares by completing a ballot at the meeting.

CHANGING YOUR VOTE BY REVOKING YOUR PROXY

Your proxy may be revoked at any time before it is voted at the annual meeting by giving notice of revocation to us, in writing, by execution of a later dated proxy or by attending and voting at the annual meeting. Simply attending the annual meeting, however, will not revoke your proxy; you must vote at the annual meeting.

HOW PROXIES ARE COUNTED

If you return a signed and dated proxy card but do not indicate how your shares are to be voted, those shares will be voted FOR each of the listed proposals. Votes cast by proxy or in person at the annual meeting will be tabulated by the election inspectors appointed for the annual meeting.

Shares voted as abstentions on any matter will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the annual meeting and treated as unvoted, although present and entitled to vote, for purposes of determining the approval of each matter as to which a stockholder has abstained. As a result, abstentions, with respect to any proposal other than the election of directors, will have the same effect as a vote against such proposal. If a broker submits a proxy that indicates the broker does not have discretionary authority as to certain shares to vote on one or more matters, those shares will be counted for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum at the annual meeting, but will not be considered as present and entitled to vote with respect to such matters. Since the Delaware General Corporation Law requires the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock entitled to vote on the proposals to approve the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division and the amendment to our certificate of incorporation, a "broker non-vote" on such proposals will have the same effect as a vote against these proposals.

COST OF SOLICITATION

We will pay all expenses in connection with this solicitation. Our officers, directors and other regular employees, who will receive no extra compensation for their services, may solicit proxies by telephone, telegram or personal solicitation.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS VOTING "FOR" EACH OF THE SIX NOMINEES.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND COMMITTEES

The board of directors held six regularly scheduled meetings and eleven special meetings during the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001. In addition, the board of directors acted seven times by unanimous consent during the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001.

The board of directors uses working committees with functional responsibility in the more complex recurring areas where disinterested oversight is required. Working committees of the board of directors include the Audit Committee, the Compensation Committee, the Nominating Committee and the Executive Committee.

AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee is the communication link between the board of directors and our independent auditors. In addition to recommending the appointment of the independent auditors to the board of directors, the Audit Committee reviews the scope of the audit, the accounting policies and reporting practices, internal auditing and internal control, compliance with our policies regarding business conduct and other matters as deemed appropriate. The Audit Committee held four meetings in fiscal 2001 with the independent auditors and our management. The Audit Committee currently is composed of Ms. Cote (Chairman), and Messrs. Wells and Moeller.

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE

The Compensation Committee is responsible for approving the compensation arrangements of senior management and recommending approval by the board of directors of amendments to our benefit plans. At six regularly scheduled meetings during the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001, the Compensation Committee approved stock option awards pursuant to our stock option plans. In addition, the Compensation Committee acted five times by unanimous consent during the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001. The Compensation Committee currently is composed of Messrs. Trimm (Chairman), Matthews and Wells.

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

The Nominating Committee is responsible for continuing studies of the size and composition of the board of directors and for proposing nominees to the board. The Nominating Committee did not meet during the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001. The Nominating Committee will consider nominees properly recommended by security holders. In order to make a nomination, our bylaws generally require that advance notice of such nomination be provided to our company at least 60 days and not more than 90 days prior to the first anniversary of the preceding year's annual stockholders' meeting, together with additional information regarding the nominee and the stockholder making such nominations as called for by our bylaws. The Nominating Committee currently is composed of Mr. Moeller (Chairman) and Ms. Cote.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

The Executive Committee is responsible for recommending key strategic and operational plans for our company. At 20 regularly scheduled meetings during the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001, the Executive Committee discussed the quarterly focus for our company. The board of directors approved the formation of the Executive Committee on April 10, 2001. The Executive Committee currently is composed of Messrs. Snyder (Chairman) and Wells, and Ms. Cote.

During the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001, with the exception of four directors who missed one regular meeting each, all directors attended 100% of the total number of meetings of the board and the committees on which that director served.

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

During fiscal 2001, each nonemployee director was paid a retainer of $3,000 for each quarter. Additionally, each nonemployee director was paid $1,000 for the regularly scheduled and special meetings of the board of directors he or she attended and $250 for participation in each telephonic meeting not considered an official board of directors' meeting. Accordingly, total director fees earned in fiscal 2001 were $120,750.

All nonemployee directors participate in our 1992 Director Stock Option Plan. Nonemployee directors receive, upon their initial election or appointment to the board of directors, stock options to purchase

25,000 shares of our common stock, having an exercise price equal to the market price of our common stock on the date of grant. In addition, nonemployee directors will receive additional options to purchase 12,500 shares of our common stock with the same terms, at the time that the eligible director's prior options granted under the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan become fully exercisable and vested. If the amendment to the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan on which our stockholders are voting is approved, each nonemployee director will continue to receive an automatic grant of an option to purchase 25,000 shares of our common stock upon election or appointment to the board of directors. Thereafter, in lieu of the existing formula grant described above, each nonemployee director will receive options to purchase 10,000 shares of our common stock on the anniversary date of his or her election or appointment to the board of directors. See "Proposal to Amend VTEL Corporation 1992 Director Stock Option Plan (Item 5)" below. All of these options vest in equal amounts monthly over a three-year period but cease vesting at the time the director ceases to be a director.

The compensation of our employee directors is discussed at "Executive Compensation" below.

REPORT OF THE AUDIT COMMITTEE

The Audit Committee is composed of three outside directors and operates under a charter adopted by the Board of Directors according to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission and the Nasdaq Stock Market. The Audit Committee charter is attached to this proxy statement as Annex D. The Audit Committee members are Ms. Cote (Chairman), and Messrs. Wells and Moeller. The Board of Directors believes that all of these directors, with the exception of Mr. Moeller, are independent as defined by the Nasdaq Stock Market. Under the Nasdaq Stock Market listing requirements, a director will not be considered "independent" if he has been employed by our company in the current year or the past three years. All of the directors on the Audit Committee are independent, except for Mr. Moeller, who was chairman of the board until March 2000, and president and chief executive officer until he resigned in September 1998. Notwithstanding that, the board of directors has determined that his prior employment does not affect his ability to exercise independent judgment.

The following is the report of the Audit Committee with respect to our audited financial statements for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001, which include our consolidated balance sheets as of July 31, 2001 and 2000, and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' equity (deficit) and cash flows for each of the three years in the period ended July 31, 2001, and the notes thereto. The information contained in this report shall not be deemed to be "soliciting material" or to be "filed" with the Securities and Exchange Commission, nor shall such information be incorporated by reference into any future filing under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, except to the extent that we specifically incorporate it by reference in such filing.

REVIEW WITH MANAGEMENT

The Audit Committee has reviewed and discussed our audited financial statements with management.

REVIEW AND DISCUSSIONS WITH INDEPENDENT ACCOUNTANTS

The Audit Committee held two meetings in conjunction with the full board of directors during our fiscal year ended July 31, 2001. The Audit Committee has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP, our independent accountants, the matters required to be discussed by SAS 61, Codification of Statements on Accounting Standards, that includes, among other items, matters related to the conduct of the audit of our financial statements.

The Audit Committee has also received written disclosures and the letter from Ernst & Young LLP required by Independent Standards Board Standard No. 1, that relates to the accountant's independence from our company and its related entities, and has discussed with Ernst & Young LLP their independence from our company.

Based on the review and discussions referred to above, the Audit Committee recommended to the board of directors that our audited financial statements be included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001.

REPORT FROM THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE REGARDING EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

As members of the Compensation Committee, it is our duty to administer the executive compensation program for our company. The Compensation Committee is responsible for establishing appropriate compensation goals for the executive officers of our company and evaluating the performance of our executive officers in meeting these goals. The elements of the executive compensation program described below are implemented and periodically reviewed and adjusted by the Compensation Committee.

The goals of the Compensation Committee in establishing our executive compensation program are as follows:

- To fairly compensate our executive officers for their contributions to our company's short-term and long-term performance. The elements of our executive compensation program are:

- annual base salaries;
 - quarterly performance bonuses;
 - retention bonuses; and
 - equity incentives.
- To allow our company to attract, motivate and retain the management personnel necessary to our company's success by providing an executive compensation program comparable to that offered by companies with which we compete for such management personnel.
 - To provide an executive compensation program with incentives linked to the financial performance of our company, and thereby enhance stockholder value. Under this program, incentive compensation for executive officers is linked to the financial performance of our company as measured by earnings per share and revenue.

Base Salaries. The annual base salaries of our chief executive officer and our other executive officers are determined based on individual performance, experience and a comparison with salary ranges and midpoints reflecting similar positions, duties and levels of responsibility at our peer group and other companies in similar industries and with comparable revenues. Our peer group is identified under the heading "Comparative Total Returns" below and the comparisons to companies in similar industries with comparable revenues are based on reports published by Radford Associates, a provider of national compensation surveys.

Quarterly Bonus. The quarterly bonuses available to our executive officers are based upon the achievement of certain earnings per share, revenue and operating expense goals, development milestones, and other personal objectives for our company set by the Compensation Committee prior to the beginning of such measurement period. No quarterly bonus was paid to executive officers for the first quarter of fiscal year 2001. Two executive officers received bonuses for the second quarter of fiscal year 2001, in the aggregate amount of $47,500. One executive officer received a bonus for the third quarter of fiscal year 2001 in the amount of $26,250. Four executives received bonuses for the fourth quarter of fiscal year 2001, in the aggregate amount of $76,051.

Retention Bonus. During fiscal year 2001, the Compensation Committee approved a plan to retain executive officers and key employees during the initial transition of our company to a software and services business. The plan was limited to the first, second and third quarters of fiscal year 2001. Payments of the retention bonuses were based on achievement of certain personal and corporate objectives. Four executives received retention bonuses under this plan totaling $269,100.

Equity Incentives. Equity incentives including grants of stock options and restricted stock, are determined based on the Compensation Committee's assessment of the ability of such officers to positively impact our company's future performance and enhance stockholder value as determined by their individual performances. Stock option grants and other equity incentives are not awarded annually, but rather as warranted by individual performance and experience. Option awards generally vest over a 48-month period. The amount and vesting of stock options generally are not contingent on achievement of any performance targets.

In fiscal 2001, options covering a total of 657,500 shares of common stock at a weighted average exercise price of $1.27 were granted to executives. Of these options, 550,000 were initial grants to executives upon their hire, 12,500 were granted to Mr. Snyder during his service as a non-employee director and 95,000 were granted for the purpose of retaining key executives. See "Executive Compensation -- Stock Option Grants During Fiscal 2001."

Equity and cash incentives are not limited to executive officers. Grants of stock options are made to all employees upon joining our company in amounts determined by the Compensation Committee and are also made to selected employees as performance related awards and as awards for certain job promotions. The amounts of such grants are determined based on the individual employee's position with our company and his or her potential ability to beneficially impact the performance of our company. By giving all employees a stake in the financial performance of our company, the Compensation Committee's goal is to provide incentives to all employees of our company to enhance the financial performance of our company and, thus, stockholder value.

Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993. The Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993 added Section 162(m) to the Internal Revenue Code. With certain exceptions, beginning with the taxable year commencing January 1, 1994, Section 162(m) will prevent publicly held corporations, including our company, from taking a tax deduction for compensation in excess of one million dollars paid to our chief executive officer and the other persons named in the Summary Compensation Table in this proxy statement. Section 162(m) will not apply to limit the deductibility of performance-based compensation exceeding one million dollars if:

- it is paid solely upon attainment of one or more performance goals;
- it is paid pursuant to a performance-based compensation plan adopted by the Compensation Committee; and
- the terms of the plan are approved by the stockholders before payment of the compensation.

The Compensation Committee has reviewed our compensation plans with regard to the deduction limitation contained in Section 162(m). The Compensation Committee believes that option grants under our equity plans meet the requirements for deductible compensation. The Compensation Committee has decided for the present not to alter our other compensation plans to meet the deductibility requirements of the regulations promulgated under the Internal Revenue Code. The Compensation Committee will continue to review the issue and its determination under the regulations under Section 162(m) and monitor whether our compensation plans should be amended in the future to meet the deductibility requirements. The Compensation Committee does not anticipate that Section 162(m) will limit the deductibility of any compensation paid in fiscal year 2001. None of our executive officers were affected by Section 162(m) in fiscal year 2001.

We refer to these activities as our solutions business, which is conducted under the name "Forgent Solutions." The primary focus of our solutions division is on delivering the high-end visual communication systems that provide functionality to customers in markets such as education, government and health care.

Upon completion of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division, we will concentrate on developing and expanding the activities and business of Forgent Solutions. Forgent Solutions primarily delivers its capabilities directly to end-user customers. We will focus our solution-oriented sales effort in the commercial marketplace, while maintaining our reseller and channel partner relationships in our existing markets for videoconferencing endpoints. As we transform our company into a visual communications solutions provider, our integrated systems group will continue to provide solutions for customers who have required multiple voice activated cameras, custom user-interface and other customized requirements. As part of our new strategy, we intend to actively pursue additional support and maintenance contracts for our competitor's products as well as other products that emerge in the broadband visual communications industry. In addition to our existing service and maintenance offerings, we currently intend to enhance our network management service capabilities.

THE SALE OF OUR VIDEO CONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION

BACKGROUND OF THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION

On January 27, 2000, the board retained Bear Stearns & Co. Inc. as its exclusive financial advisor to assist our company in maximizing stockholder value through an evaluation of our company and an assessment of our available alternatives, and if appropriate, assisting our company in pursuing a transaction, approved by the board. From January 27, 2000 to April 12, 2000, Bear Stearns conducted its study of our company and our available alternatives.

On April 12, 2000, Bear Stearns met with the board of directors and outlined what it believed were the available alternatives, namely, remaining independent and restructuring operations, selling our company, selling our core videoconferencing systems products division and other possible alternatives not considered viable. The board authorized management and Bear Stearns to contact potential parties who might be interested in acquiring our company or our core videoconferencing systems business. At this time the board had not made any decision as to what course of conduct to pursue.

From April 12, 2000 to July 11, 2000, Bear Stearns and our management contacted participants in the videoconferencing industry to gauge interest in a possible transaction involving our company. Some preliminary discussions were held, but there was insufficient interest in pursuing a transaction at that time.

On July 11, 2000, the board met with Bear Stearns who reported on the lack of progress in obtaining interest in a possible transaction involving our company. The board then focused on the need to restructure the business operations of our company in light that the prospects of a sale of our company seemed unlikely. The board approved management developing a plan to downsize the core videoconferencing systems products division to achieve profitability and develop a new company business plan that contemplated shifting company resources to establish our company's solutions business. Our company was to be restructured into two separate divisions, the videoconferencing systems products division and the solutions business, with our company's internet start-ups to be kept as a separate activity.

On August 11, 2000, the board approved the implementation of the new company business plan separating our company into two divisions, our videoconferencing systems products division and our solutions business. On August 21, 2000, we made a public announcement of this new business model and of our intent to develop our solutions business, which is operated under the name "Forgent Solutions," with emphasis on providing services and management software for video networks.

On October 5, 2000, we entered into an agreement with Strategic Management, Inc., a consulting company in which T. Gary Trimm, a director of our company, is a principal, to assist us in examining our videoconferencing systems products division and establishing a plan that would make that division attractive to a potential partner or acquiror. This would entail reducing costs of our videoconferencing systems products division and establishing that business as a separate entity with the goal of making our videoconferencing systems products division self-sufficient from a cash flow standpoint. Strategic Management also agreed to prepare a marketing plan designed to present our videoconferencing systems products division to various potential purchasers or investors.

In early calendar 2001, Strategic Management solicited purchasers of our videoconferencing systems products division, but no meaningful interest was generated. Strategic Management then offered to purchase our videoconferencing systems products division, but the board declined to entertain the offer due to the magnitude of the offer being insufficient and due to the involvement of Mr. Trimm on the board and with Strategic Management. Strategic Management then agreed to not participate as a buyer of our videoconferencing systems products division.

From April 2001 through May 2001, our company received two offers for our videoconferencing systems products division, the offer from the management of the division described in this proxy statement, and an offer from RSI Systems, Inc. The board of directors reviewed each of the offers received and met with representatives of both groups. Each offer contained cash, debt and equity components, requiring the board to assess the creditworthiness of the notes to be received, the initial and expected value of the equity in the purchasing entity to be received and the overall structure of each proposal, including what representations and warranties our company was likely to be required to make, the liabilities our company would be required to retain and the extent of any indemnification obligations. During this time, due diligence materials were exchanged and various modifications to the proposals were discussed.

On April 24, 2001, our company retained SWS Securities, Inc. to act as financial advisor on the sale, engaging them for the purpose of evaluating the fairness of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division, from a financial point of view, to our stockholders.

During its process of evaluating the management and the RSI proposals, the board determined that it would be appropriate to see if any other indications of interest could be obtained. In May 2001, the board authorized Strategic Management to seek other indications of interest. No further indications were forthcoming.

On May 25, 2001, the board met to review the RSI and management proposals. SWS Securities, Inc. gave a presentation to the board regarding the fairness, from a financial point of view, of each of the proposals. After carefully evaluating each proposal the board determined to accept the management proposal.

From May 2001 through the execution of the definitive asset purchase agreement, VTEL Products Corporation and its legal counsel continued their due diligence efforts. During this time, we and our legal counsel and VTEL Products Corporation and its legal counsel met together and participated by telephone and in person in a series of negotiations finalizing the terms of the asset purchase agreement, the license agreement and the other related agreements. These negotiations covered all aspects of the transaction, which included, among other items, the representations and warranties made by the parties, the restrictions on the conduct of our videoconferencing systems products division prior to closing, the conditions to closing, the termination provisions and the consequences of termination.

In May 2001, the board of directors held another meeting by telephone. Following a continued discussion of the terms of the asset purchase agreement, the license agreement and the other related agreements, the board of directors unanimously approved the final terms of the asset purchase agreement, the license agreement and the other related agreements. The board of directors specifically noted that the asset purchase agreement provides that consummation of the asset purchase agreement, as well as the mailing of this proxy statement was subject to delivery by SWS Securities, Inc. of an opinion regarding the financial analyses with respect to the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation, to the effect that the consideration to be paid by VTEL Products Corporation to us pursuant to the asset purchase agreement is fair to our stockholders from a financial point of view. The board of directors also unanimously resolved to recommend that our stockholders approve and adopt the asset purchase agreement and the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation.

The asset purchase agreement was executed as of September 28, 2001. We announced the execution of the asset purchase agreement on October 2, 2001. Although subsequent communications have been secured by us on a non-solicited basis about the sale of our video conferencing systems products division, no proposals have been received by us that the board of directors considered to be more favorable than the current agreement.

REASONS FOR THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION

We are proposing to sell our videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation because we believe that the sale and the terms of the related asset purchase agreement are in the best interests of our company and our stockholders. The board of directors has identified various benefits that are likely to result from the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. The board of directors believes the sale of that division will:

- allow us to devote substantially all of our energies and resources to development of our Forgent Solutions business and network management software;

- allow us to compete more effectively through Forgent Solutions as a reseller and servicer of multiple vendors' products by disassociating our company from our VTEL product line. It is difficult to expand our business of selling and servicing other manufacturers' products as long as we are associated or identified with a manufacturer of videoconferencing systems products like those of the VTEL product line; and
- allow us to direct our primary focus to potentially better overall returns from our Forgent Solutions business and network management software, as opposed to the returns that have been produced by the combined Forgent Solutions and VTEL products businesses.

In arriving at its determination that the asset sale is in the best interest of our company and its stockholders, the board of directors carefully considered the terms of the asset purchase agreement as well as the potential impacts of the asset sale on our company. As part of this process, the board of directors considered the advice and assistance of its outside financial advisors and legal counsel. In determining to authorize the asset sale, the board of directors considered the factors set at above as well as the following factors:

- the written opinion that we expect to receive from SWS Securities, Inc., our company's financial advisor, that the consideration to be received by our company pursuant to the asset sale is fair to our company from a financial point of view;
- the absence of other offers that are superior to VTEL Products Corporation's offer in light of all the terms and conditions presented by VTEL Products Corporation;
- the terms and conditions of the asset purchase agreement, including the fiduciary out provision negotiated by the board, which allows the board to consider unsolicited offers to purchase the videoconferencing systems products division assets;
- the fact that there is a modest termination fee payable to VTEL Products Corporation if the asset purchase agreement is terminated by us, which provides us with additional flexibility if it becomes necessary to terminate the agreement;
- the fact that the asset purchase agreement requires that the sale be approved by a majority of the company's stockholders which ensures that the board will not be taking action of which the stockholders disapprove;
- the risk that after the asset sale our company will have a less diversified business which would leave our company dependent on the performance of our Forgent Solutions business;
- the risk that our company could be exposed to future indemnification payments for a breach of the representations and warranties contained in the asset purchase agreement; and
- the risk that the purchase price for the videoconferencing system products division assets will be adjusted down if there is a change in the net asset value of the assets sold.

In view of the variety of factors considered in connection with its evaluation of the asset sale, the board of directors did not find it practical to, and did not quantify or otherwise attempt to assign, relative weights to the specific factors considered in reaching its conclusions.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The board of directors has determined that the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division is in the best interests of our company and our stockholders. The board of directors has unanimously approved the asset purchase agreement and unanimously recommends that stockholders vote in favor of the proposal to approve the sale of substantially all of the assets of our videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation pursuant to the asset purchase agreement and the transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement.

OPINION OF OUR FINANCIAL ADVISOR

The closing of the asset purchase agreement is conditioned on, among other things, the delivery by VTEL Products Corporation of a commitment or other written document for financing of VTEL Products Corporation in an amount and on terms and conditions sufficient to permit VTEL Products Corporation to consummate the asset purchase and to operate the videoconferencing systems products division from and after the closing date. This condition provides that the terms of the financing may not prohibit or be reasonably likely to materially impair VTEL Products Corporation's ability to pay the $2,025,000 promissory note on its maturity date. This condition is required by SWS Securities, Inc., so that it is able to deliver a favorable opinion for inclusion in this proxy statement as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to our stockholders of the purchase price for the videoconferencing systems products division. The text of the proposed fairness opinion expected to be rendered by SWS Securities, Inc. is set forth below.

TEXT OF OPINION OF OUR FINANCIAL ADVISOR

Our company retained SWS Securities, Inc. to act as financial advisor to the board of directors and requested that SWS Securities, Inc. evaluate the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the purchase price to be received in the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. On May 25, 2001, at a meeting of the board of directors, SWS Securities, Inc. delivered a report analyzing the videoconferencing systems products division and certain preliminary acquisition proposals in the context of the evaluation by the board of directors of the possible sale of the videoconferencing systems products division.

Subsequently, a purchase price was negotiated with VTEL Products Corporation that provided an aggregate equivalent purchase price of approximately $9,395,000 that takes into consideration the principal amount of the notes and common stock to be received by our company as part to the total purchase price. The following is a summary of the purchase price to be received by our company that was considered by SWS Securities, Inc.:

- cash in the amount of $500,000; plus
- a secured subordinated promissory note in the original principal amount of $2,025,000, payable 90 days after the closing date, subject to adjustment as described below under the heading "The Asset Purchase Agreement -- Consideration;" plus
- a secured subordinated promissory note in the original principle amount of $5,000,000, subject to adjustment as described below under the heading "The Asset Purchase Agreement -- Consideration;" plus
- shares of common stock of VTEL Products Corporation equal to approximately 19.9% of the fully diluted equity on the closing date.

On May 25, 2001, at a meeting of the board of directors, SWS Securities, Inc. delivered a report and oral opinion to the effect that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the matters stated in the opinion, the purchase price was fair, from a financial point of view. We have not yet received a written opinion confirming this oral opinion.

A copy of the opinion we expect to receive from SWS Securities, Inc., which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered, and limits on the review taken, is attached as Annex C to this proxy statement. You are urged to read the SWS Securities, Inc. opinion in its entirety. The description set forth below of SWS Securities, Inc.'s opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. SWS Securities, Inc.'s opinion is rendered for the benefit and use of the board of directors in connection with the board of directors' consideration of the asset sale and does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of our common stock as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the asset sale.

In arriving at its opinion, SWS Securities, Inc.:

- reviewed the asset purchase agreement;
- reviewed certain financial statements and other information of the videoconferencing systems products division;
- discussed with certain members of senior management of our company and the videoconferencing systems products division the past and current business operations, financial condition and future prospects of the videoconferencing systems products division;
- reviewed certain internal financial analyses and forecasts prepared by management;
- visited the headquarters of our company and the videoconferencing systems products division;
- compared certain financial information for the videoconferencing systems products division with similar information for certain other companies, the securities of which are publicly traded; and
- reviewed the financial terms of certain business combinations that it deemed relevant.

In rendering its opinion, SWS Securities, Inc. considered such other information and conducted such other analyses as it deemed appropriate under the circumstances. In connection with the review, SWS Securities, Inc. relied upon and assumed the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information publicly available or furnished to it by our company or otherwise reviewed by it. SWS Securities, Inc. did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of such information. SWS Securities, Inc. did not make or obtain any independent evaluations or appraisals of any of the properties, assets or liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of our company or the videoconferencing systems products division. In addition, neither our company nor the board of directors authorized SWS Securities, Inc. to solicit any indications of interest from any third party with respect to the purchase of all or a part of our company's business. With respect to financial projections, SWS Securities, Inc. assumed that they were reasonably prepared on a basis reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of our company's management as to future financial performance of the videoconferencing systems products division, and SWS Securities, Inc. expressed no formal opinion with respect to such forecasts or the assumptions on which they were based. The opinion was necessarily based upon financial, economic, market and other conditions as they existed and can be evaluated on the date of the opinion.

SWS Securities, Inc. expressed no view as to, and its opinion does not address, the relative merits of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division as compared to any alternative business strategies that might exist for that division or the effect of any transaction in which our company might engage. Although SWS Securities, Inc. evaluated the purchase price to be received by our company for the sale from a financial point of view, it was not asked to and did not recommend the specific purchase price payable in the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. The purchase price was determined through negotiation between VTEL Products Corporation and the board of directors. No other instructions or limitations were imposed by our company on SWS Securities, Inc. with respect to the investigations made or procedures followed by it in rendering its opinion.

In preparing its opinion, SWS Securities, Inc. performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, including those described below. The summary of these analyses is not a complete description of the analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex analytical process involving various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and, therefore, a fairness opinion is difficult to summarize. Accordingly, SWS Securities, Inc. believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of its analyses and factors or focusing on information presented in tabular format, without considering all analyses and factors or the narrative description of the analyses, could create a misleading or incomplete view of the processes underlying its analyses and opinion.

In its analyses, SWS Securities, Inc. considered industry performance, general business, economic, market and financial conditions and other matters existing as of the date of its opinion. Many of these factors are beyond the control of our company and the videoconferencing systems products division. No company, transaction or business used in those analyses as a comparison is identical to the videoconferencing systems products division or the proposed sale of that division, nor is an evaluation of those analyses entirely mathematical; rather, the analyses involve complex considerations and judgments concerning financial and operating characteristics and other factors that could affect the acquisition, public trading or other values of the companies, business segments or transactions being analyzed.

The estimates contained in SWS Securities, Inc.'s analyses and the valuation ranges resulting from any particular analysis do not necessarily reflect actual values or future results or values. Actual values or future results or values may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by the analyses. In addition, analyses relating to the value of businesses or securities do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which businesses or securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, these analyses and estimates are inherently subject to substantial uncertainty.

SWS Securities, Inc.'s opinion and analyses were only one of many factors considered by the board of directors in its evaluation of the proposed sale of our videoconferencing systems products division and should not be viewed as determinative of the views of the board of directors or management with respect to the consideration or the proposed sale of our that division.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses that SWS Securities, Inc. performed in connection with the opinion it is expected to render. THE FINANCIAL ANALYSES SUMMARIZED BELOW INCLUDE INFORMATION PRESENTED IN TABULAR FORMAT. IN ORDER TO FULLY UNDERSTAND THESE FINANCIAL ANALYSES, THE TABLES MUST BE READ TOGETHER WITH THE TEXT OF EACH SUMMARY. THE TABLES ALONE DO NOT CONSTITUTE A COMPLETE DESCRIPTION OF THE FINANCIAL ANALYSES. CONSIDERING THE DATA SET FORTH BELOW WITHOUT CONSIDERING THE FULL NARRATIVE DESCRIPTION OF THE FINANCIAL ANALYSES, INCLUDING THE METHODOLOGIES AND ASSUMPTIONS UNDERLYING THE ANALYSES, COULD CREATE A MISLEADING OR INCOMPLETE VIEW OF SWS SECURITIES, INC.'S FINANCIAL ANALYSES.

Selected Companies Analysis. Using publicly available information, SWS Securities, Inc. analyzed the market values and trading multiples of the following eight selected publicly traded companies generally in the videoconferencing industry:

- Ezenia! Inc.
- First Virtual Communications, Inc.
- Gentner Communications Corporation
- Latitude Communications, Inc.
- PictureTel Corporation

29

- Polycom, Inc.
- RSI Systems Inc.
- Video Network Communications, Inc.

SWS Securities, Inc. reviewed the appropriate market values as a multiple of, among other things, latest 12 months revenues, earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization, also referred to as "EBITDA," earnings before interest and taxes, also referred to as "EBIT," pretax income, earnings per share, estimated calendar year 2001 earnings per share and tangible book value of the publicly traded companies listed above. All multiples were based on closing stock prices on , . Earnings per share estimates for the selected companies were based on publicly available research analysts' estimates and earnings estimates for the videoconferencing systems products division were based on internal estimates of the management of our company.

SWS Securities, Inc. then applied a range of selected multiples implied by the selected companies to management's annualized amounts for the quarter ended July 31, 2001 revenues, EBITDA, EBIT(loss), pretax loss, net loss, calendar year 2001 net income and tangible book value for the videoconferencing systems products division. This analysis resulted in the following implied median equity reference range for the videoconferencing systems products division of $ to $. SWS Securities, Inc. noted that the most relevant methodology based on this approach is a multiple of EBITDA, due to the videoconferencing systems products division's declining revenues and lack of earnings before interest and taxes, as well as pretax and net losses. This analysis resulted in the following implied equity value using the most relevant methodology (multiple of EBITDA), as compared to the purchase price that our company expects to receive for the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division:

IMPLIED EQUITY VALUE -----	PURCHASE PRICE -----
$	$9,395,000

SWS Securities, Inc. noted that none of the companies used in the market analysis of selected public companies was identical to the videoconferencing systems products division and that, accordingly, the analysis of comparable public companies necessarily involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies reviewed and other factors that would affect the market values of comparable companies.

Precedent Transaction Analysis. Using publicly available information, SWS Securities, Inc. reviewed the purchase prices and implied transaction value multiples paid in merger and acquisition transactions during the last three years in the following four industry groups based on data from Mergerstat Review 2001, 2000 and 1999 Editions:

- Communications
- Computer Software, Supplies & Service
- Electronics
- Office Equipment & Computer Hardware

SWS Securities, Inc. observed that there was limited transactional history, as well as limited meaningful financial data on companies that have engaged in business combinations specifically in the videoconferencing industry and, therefore, a broader industry sample was necessary and appropriate. SWS Securities, Inc. reviewed the transaction values implied by the purchase prices in the selected industry groups as multiples of latest 12 months revenues, EBITDA, EBIT, earnings per share and tangible book value. All multiples were based on financial information available at the announcement date of the relevant transactions.

SWS Securities, Inc. then applied a three year average of selected multiples implied by the transactions to management's annualized amounts for the quarter ended July 31, 2001 revenues, EBITDA, EBIT(loss), net loss, calendar year 2001 net income and tangible book value for the videoconferencing systems products division. This analysis resulted in the following implied median equity reference range for our videoconferencing systems products division of $ to $. SWS Securities, Inc. noted that the most relevant methodology based on this approach is a multiple of EBITDA, due to the videoconferencing systems products division's declining revenues and lack of earnings before interest and taxes, as well as pretax and net losses. This analysis resulted in the following implied median equity value using the most relevant methodology (multiple of EBITDA), as compared to the purchase price that our company expects to receive for the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division:

IMPLIED MEDIAN EQUITY VALUE -----	PURCHASE PRICE -----
$	$9,395,000

SWS Securities, Inc. noted that no company or industry group utilized in the analysis was identical to the videoconferencing systems products division. All multiples for the selected transactions were based on public information available at the time of announcement of such transaction, without taking into account differing market and other conditions during the period during which the selected transaction occurred.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis. SWS Securities, Inc. derived an implied equity reference range for the videoconferencing systems products division by performing a discounted cash flow analysis on the unlevered free cash flows of the videoconferencing systems products division based primarily on internal estimates of the management of our company. The cash flows and terminal growth rates were discounted to present value using discount rates ranging from 12.0% to 18.0% and terminal growth rates ranged from (-2%) to 4.0%. The future cash flow amounts were then reduced by percentages ranging from no discount to 75%, reflecting various execution percentages of management's projection. This analysis resulted in the following implied median equity reference ranges for the videoconferencing systems products division, as compared to the purchase price that our company expects to receive for the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division:

% OF MANAGEMENT'S PROJECTIONS OF CASH FLOW -----	IMPLIED MEDIAN EQUITY VALUES -----	PURCHASE PRICE -----
100%.....	$	$9,395,000
75%.....	$
50%.....	$
25%.....	$

Breakup/Liquidation Analysis. SWS Securities, Inc. derived an implied equity reference range for the videoconferencing systems products division by performing a breakup/liquidation analysis based on internal estimates of the management of our company and SWS Securities, Inc. estimates. The analysis was based on an assessment of the liquidation/breakup value of balance sheet assets, net of liabilities of the videoconferencing systems products division. The analysis assumed no federal tax impact or transaction costs such as legal, brokerage fees or other miscellaneous winding up expenses. This analysis resulted in the following implied equity reference range for the videoconferencing systems products division, as compared to the purchase price to be received for the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division:

IMPLIED EQUITY VALUES -----	PURCHASE PRICE -----
$	$9,395,000

Fee Arrangements. Under the terms of its engagement, our company agreed to pay SWS Securities, Inc. a retainer fee of $50,000 at the time SWS Securities, Inc. was retained by the board of directors and a fee of $50,000 at the time SWS Securities, Inc. delivers its opinion relating to the offer by VTEL Products Corporation. Our company has also agreed to reimburse SWS Securities, Inc. for its travel and other reasonable out-of-pocket expenses, including the reasonable fees and expenses of its legal counsel, and to indemnify SWS Securities, Inc. and related persons against liabilities, including liabilities under the federal securities laws, arising out of its engagement.

In the ordinary course of business, SWS Securities, Inc. and its affiliates may actively trade or hold the securities of our company for their own account or for the account of customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in those securities.

Our company selected SWS Securities, Inc. based on its experience, expertise and reputation. SWS Securities, Inc. is a nationally recognized investment banking firm that, as a customary part of its business, evaluates businesses and their securities in mergers and acquisitions, negotiated underwritings, competitive bids, secondary distributions of listed and unlisted securities, private placements and valuations for estate, corporate and other purposes.

PROCEEDS OF THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION

Our company will retain the proceeds of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. It is the intention of the board of directors to use the proceeds along with our other cash and cash equivalents to fund and grow Forgent Solutions.

STOCKHOLDER APPROVAL OF THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION; VOTE REQUIRED

Under section 271 of the Delaware General Corporation Law, the sale by our company of "all or substantially all" of our assets requires approval by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the voting power of all outstanding shares of our common stock on the record date. We, in consultation with our legal counsel, have determined that the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division assets to VTEL Products Corporation may constitute a sale of "all or substantially all" of our assets based on current interpretations of that term. Thus, the asset purchase agreement provides that, as a condition to our obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement, the affirmative vote of the holders of at least a majority of the voting power of all outstanding shares of our common stock on the record date must be obtained.

NO CHANGES TO THE RIGHTS OF SECURITY HOLDERS; NO APPRAISAL RIGHTS

Our stockholders will not experience any change in their rights as stockholders as a result of the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division. We are organized under the corporate laws of the State of Delaware. Neither Delaware law, our certificate of incorporation nor our bylaws provides for appraisal or other similar rights for dissenting stockholders in connection with this transaction. Accordingly, our stockholders will have no right to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

REGULATORY MATTERS

No material regulatory approvals, filings or consents are required to complete the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division.

ACCOUNTING TREATMENT

The proposed sale of our videoconferencing systems products division is expected to be accounted for as a sale of assets.

MATERIAL UNITED STATES FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The proposed sale of the videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation will be a taxable transaction to our company for United States federal income tax purposes.

We do not expect that we will incur a regular tax liability as a result of the proposed sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. We have sufficient net operating loss carryforwards to fully offset any expected taxable income for the 2002 fiscal year, including any gain that may result from the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division. However, depending upon the operating results during the remaining three quarters of our fiscal year ending July 31, 2002, we may incur Alternative Minimum Tax, which, in general, will result in an effective tax rate of approximately two percent. We will not receive a tax opinion of counsel with respect to the transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement.

The sale of our videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation will not cause any federal income tax consequences for our stockholders.

VOTING BY OUR DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

As of December 3, 2001, our directors and executive officers owned of record shares of our common stock, representing approximately % of the outstanding shares of common stock. We believe that each of our directors and executive officers intends to vote at the annual meeting in favor of the proposals described in this proxy statement.

INTERESTS OF MANAGEMENT, DIRECTORS AND SIGNIFICANT STOCKHOLDERS IN THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION

On October 5, 2000, we entered into an agreement with Strategic Management, Inc., a company in which T. Gary Trimm, one of our directors, is a principal, to assist our company in developing a plan to establish our videoconferencing systems products division as a independent, self-sustaining unit, and to assist our company in assessing strategic alternatives for this division as part of our efforts to restructure our business around our video network consulting services business. Pursuant to this engagement, we agreed to pay Strategic Management an hourly rate for services rendered, up to a maximum of $60,000. In addition, the engagement provides additional contingent compensation to Strategic Management if a transaction is consummated involving our videoconferencing systems products division. If the division is sold, this includes a fee equal to seven percent of the consideration we receive, with a minimum fee upon a sale of $750,000. This fee will be paid pro-rata, as cash or stock related to the sale of our videoconference systems products division is received by our company. If new investors invest in the division, we agreed to pay Strategic Management a fee equal to seven percent of the cash proceeds we receive. The engagement was approved by the disinterested directors of our company.

OUR OPERATIONS FOLLOWING THE SALE OF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION

Following the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division, we will no longer engage in the design, manufacture and sale of videoconferencing systems. Our remaining business operations will consist primarily of Forgent Solutions.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS YOU SHOULD TAKE INTO ACCOUNT IN DECIDING HOW TO VOTE ON THE PROPOSAL TO SELL OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION

You should carefully consider the special considerations described below as well as other information provided to you in this document in deciding how to vote on the proposal to sell our videoconferencing systems products division assets. The special considerations described below are not the only ones facing our company. Additional considerations not presently known to us or that we currently believe are immaterial may also impair our business operations. If any of the following special considerations actually occur, our business, financial condition or results of operations could be materially adversely affected, the value of our common stock could decline, and you may lose all or part of your investment.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS REGARDING THE PROPOSAL TO SELL OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION

We may be unable to collect the amount owed to us by VTEL Products Corporation pursuant to the notes.

A portion of the consideration we will receive from VTEL Products Corporation for the assets of our videoconferencing systems products division will be in the form of two subordinated promissory notes. As a result of the absence of any operating history of VTEL Products Corporation, which is a new company formed solely to buy this division from us, we cannot predict whether or not VTEL Products Corporation will operate profitably in the future. If VTEL Products Corporation is not able to achieve sufficient cash flows and profitability to enable it to meet its obligations to us and others, we may be unable to collect the full amount VTEL Products Corporation owes us pursuant to the promissory notes. Additionally, the promissory notes and the payment of all indebtedness, interest, fees and other amounts payable in respect of the notes, will be subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment in full of VTEL Products Corporation's senior lenders under any subordination agreement we are required to enter into with those senior lenders. No payment of principal, interest or other amounts under the notes will become due to the extent restricted by any subordination agreement. The payment by VTEL Products Corporation of amounts it owes to its senior lenders, or restrictive agreements that it enters into with its senior lenders, may render it unable to make payments to us under the notes.

The value of VTEL Products Corporation's common stock that we receive as consideration could decline and we cannot assure you as to its future value.

We are unable to ascertain the current or future value of the common stock we are receiving from VTEL Products Corporation as part of the consideration for the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division because, among other reasons, no trading market for such shares exists. VTEL Products Corporation is a newly formed private corporation, and has no operating history. Following the closing of the asset purchase agreement, VTEL Products Corporation will operate the videoconferencing systems products division that is currently being operated by our company. The videoconferencing systems industry has historically been cyclical and subject to significant economic downturns at various times. Recently the videoconferencing systems industry has been experiencing decreasing demand. If VTEL Products Corporation is not able to achieve future revenue growth and improved profitability, the value of VTEL Products Corporation's shares could decline significantly and it may be difficult for us to be able to liquidate the common stock. We may be unable to realize upon any value with respect to these shares.

The transferability of VTEL Product Corporation's common stock that we will receive is restricted; no trading market for VTEL Product Corporation's common stock exists or is expected to exist in the foreseeable future.

The common stock that we are receiving from VTEL Products Corporation has not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. Accordingly, transferability of the common stock is restricted under the Securities Act and by provisions of applicable state securities laws. We may not sell or transfer the common stock in the absence of an effective registration statement under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws or an opinion of counsel acceptable to VTEL Products Corporation and its counsel that registration is not required. VTEL Products Corporation is not under any obligation to register the common stock that we receive. Additionally, there is currently no trading market for VTEL Products Corporation common stock nor is one expected to exist in the foreseeable future. Accordingly, even in the absence of the foregoing restrictions on transfer, it may be difficult for us to readily dispose of the common stock. Further, we will be required to enter into a right of first refusal agreement with VTEL Products Corporation that will require us to first offer such shares to VTEL Products Corporation before we may transfer such shares. This agreement will also restrict our ability to market those shares.

There is no plan to distribute any of the proceeds of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division to our stockholders.

We do not intend to distribute any portion of the proceeds from the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division assets to our stockholders. Currently, we intend to use the proceeds from the sale of that division to fund and grow our solutions division.

Management could spend or invest the proceeds from the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division in ways with which our stockholders may not agree, including the possible pursuit of other market opportunities.

Our management could spend or invest the proceeds from the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division in ways with which our stockholders may not agree. The investment of these proceeds may not yield a favorable return. Furthermore, because the market for our solutions division is evolving, in the future we may discover new opportunities that are more attractive. As a result, we may commit resources to these alternative market opportunities. This action may require us to limit or abandon our currently planned focus on the visual communications solutions market. If we change our business focus we may face risks that may be different from the risks associated with the solutions market.

The asset purchase agreement will expose us to contingent liabilities.

Under the asset purchase agreement, we have agreed to indemnify VTEL Products Corporation for any breach or default of our representations and warranties contained in the asset purchase agreement and for other matters, subject to certain limitations. For example, an indemnification claim by VTEL Products Corporation might result if we breach or default any of our representations about the assets comprising our videoconferencing systems products division. Significant indemnification claims by VTEL Products Corporation could have a material adverse effect on our business.

The failure to complete the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division may result in a decrease in the market value of our common stock and may create substantial doubt as to our ability to grow and implement our current business strategies.

The sale of our videoconferencing systems products division is subject to a number of contingencies, including approval by our stockholders and other customary closing conditions. Among other conditions, the closing of the asset purchase agreement is subject to VTEL Products Corporation arranging necessary financing, and we cannot predict whether VTEL Products Corporation will succeed in obtaining this financing. As a result, we cannot assure you that the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division will be completed. If our stockholders fail to approve the proposals at the annual meeting or if the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division is not completed for any other reason, the market price of our common stock may decline. In addition, failure to complete the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division may substantially limit our ability to grow and implement business strategies.

SPECIAL CONSIDERATIONS RELATING TO OUR COMPANY IF OUR VIDEOCONFERENCING SYSTEMS PRODUCTS DIVISION IS SOLD

Our success will depend on a single line of business.

The videoconferencing systems products division assets we propose to sell constitute a significant portion of our assets at the time of the transaction. As such, our asset base and revenues following the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division will change significantly from that existing prior to this transaction. After the sale of that division, we expect to generate substantially all of our sales from our visual communications solutions division, operated currently under the name "Forgent Solutions." Our solutions division was only recently organized, and it has not represented a large portion of our business or revenues. We organized our solutions division in August 2000. For the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001, we had $38,169,000 of revenues and a net loss of $14,504,000 from our solutions division, and we cannot assure you that we can grow the revenues of this business or achieve profitability. As a result, our revenue and profitability will depend on our ability to generate additional customers and to establish our solutions business as a reliable services provider to major corporations that have or are deploying videoconferencing networks. A reduction in demand for these services would have a material adverse effect on our business. The sustainability of current levels of solutions revenues and the future growth of such revenues, if any, will depend on, among other factors:

- the overall performance of the economy;
- competition within our key markets;
- customer acceptance of our new software and service business; and
- the demand for videoconferencing solutions.

We can not assure you that we will maintain or increase our current level of revenues or profits from our solutions division in future periods.

Our success will depend on our relationships with our key resellers.

Approximately 80% of the revenues of our solutions division during the fiscal year ended July 31, 2001 were derived from Ameritech, Verizon, Sprint, Norstan and Bell Atlantic. Our success will depend in part upon our ability to enter into additional agreements with new parties while maintaining our existing relationships. We believe our existing relationships have been a significant factor in the success to date of our solutions business, and any deterioration or termination of these relationships would seriously harm our business.

Our solutions business, Forgent Solutions, will depend on customers from our videoconferencing systems products division.

Our solutions business derives a substantial portion of its revenues from customers of our videoconferencing systems products division. Following the sale of that division, we might not be able to retain all of these customers for Forgent Solutions. The decrease or loss of business from these customers could have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

The market for our services is competitive and we may not have the resources required to compete effectively.

The market for the visual communications solutions services we offer is relatively new and therefore subject to rapid and significant change. While most videoconferencing manufacturers do not usually provide network consulting services, some of our current smaller niche market customers may potentially be our competitors for certain customers. While we believe that by embarking on this new business strategy that we are focusing on a niche that is being ignored by the industry, we cannot assure you that this strategy will be successful. Furthermore, if this strategy is successful it is likely that other companies will attempt to duplicate this business model. Our competitors may succeed in developing technologies and products that are more effective than those we are developing and could render our services obsolete and noncompetitive. In addition, our competitors compete with us in recruiting and retaining highly qualified personnel. As a result, we cannot assure you that we will be able to compete successfully with these organizations.

Patents and other proprietary rights will provide uncertain protection of our proprietary information and our inability to protect a patent or other proprietary right may harm our business.

We own over thirty-five patents issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. In excess of thirty-eight patent applications are pending related to our technology. We cannot assure you that the pending patents will be issued or that we can successfully defend issued patents. None of the patents are being transferred in the sale, although we will be granting a non-exclusive license to certain of our patented technologies to VTEL Products Corporation if the sale is completed, as described under "The Asset Purchase Agreement -- Other Agreements -- General License Agreement."

The patent position of companies engaged in the sale of products and services such as ours is uncertain and involves complex legal and factual questions. Issued patents can later be held invalid by the patent office issuing the patent or by a court. We cannot assure you that our patents will not be challenged, invalidated or circumvented or that the rights granted thereunder will provide us a competitive advantage.

We also rely on trade secrets and other unpatented proprietary information in the offering of our services. To the extent we rely on confidential information to maintain our competitive position, we cannot assure you that other parties will not independently develop the same or similar information.

There has been substantial litigation regarding patent and other intellectual property rights in the videoconferencing industry. Litigation could result in substantial costs and a diversion of our effort, but may be necessary to enforce any patents issued to us, protect our trade secrets or know-how, defend against claimed infringement of the rights of others or determine the scope and validity of the proprietary rights of others. We cannot assure you that third parties will not pursue litigation that could be costly to us. An adverse determination in any litigation could subject us to significant liabilities to third parties, require us to seek licenses from or pay royalties to third parties or prevent us from offering our services, any of which could seriously harm our business.

We may be unable to adequately respond to rapid changes in technology in the visual solutions marketplace.

The market for our services is characterized by rapidly changing technology, evolving industry standards and frequent product introductions. The introduction of products embodying new technology and the emergence of new industry standards may render our existing services obsolete and unmarketable if we are unable to service the new products. A significant factor in our ability to grow and to remain competitive is our ability to successfully service on a timely basis new products that embody new technology, anticipate and incorporate evolving industry standards and achieve levels of functionality and price acceptable to the market. We may encounter technical or other difficulties that could delay our ability to service new products in the future. If we are unable, for technological or other reasons, to service new products in a timely manner in response to changes in the industry, our business and operating results will be materially and adversely affected.

Our future success will depend on our ability to manage any growth in our Forgent Solutions business.

If we are successful in increasing the revenues of our solutions division we may be required to expand our operations, particularly in the areas of our technical assistance center and field service organization. If we are required to expand our operations in these areas, those expansions will likely result in new and increased responsibilities for management personnel and place significant strain on our management, operating and financial systems and other resources. To accommodate any such growth and compete effectively, we will be required to implement improved information systems, procedures and controls, and to expand, train, motivate and manage our work force. Our future success will depend to a significant extent on the ability of our current and future management personnel to operate effectively both independently and as a group. We cannot assure you that our personnel, systems, procedures and controls will be adequate to support our future operations.

CONSIDERATION

The consideration that we will receive in the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division consists of the assumption of certain liabilities by VTEL Products Corporation, as well as the following:

- $500,000 in cash, payable at the closing;
- a secured subordinated promissory note in the original principal amount of $2,025,000, due 90 days after the closing date of the asset purchase agreement, subject to adjustment as described below, bearing interest at the rate of 5%;

39

- a secured subordinated promissory note in the original principal amount of $5,000,000, subject to adjustment as described below, bearing interest at the rate of 5%. On the last day of each calendar month, beginning four years seven months after closing of the asset purchase agreement, VTEL Products Corporation will pay $83,333.33 on the outstanding principal and interest of the $5,000,000 note. All remaining principal, together with all accrued but unpaid interest on the note, will become due and payable in full five and one-half years after the closing date of the asset purchase agreement; and
- shares of common stock of VTEL Products Corporation equal to approximately 19.9% of VTEL Products Corporation's fully diluted equity on the closing date of the asset purchase agreement.

The promissory notes and the payment of any and all indebtedness, interest, fees and other amounts payable in respect of the notes, are subordinated in right of payment to the prior payment in full of VTEL Products Corporation's senior lenders under a subordination agreement that we will enter into with those senior lenders. No payment of principal, interest or other amounts under the notes will become due to the extent restricted by any subordination agreement.

The promissory notes are subject to the following adjustments:

- The promissory note in the principal amount of $2,025,000 will be increased by the amount of all of our claims, rights and interest in and to any deposits or utility deposits relating to our videoconferencing systems product division or the division's assets that are acquired by VTEL Products Corporation.

- In the event that the value of our videoconferencing systems products division inventory is less than $7,500,000 as of 11:59 p.m. on the closing date of the sale, then the original principal amount of the notes will be reduced by the full aggregate dollar amount of the shortfall. If the original principal amount of the notes is decreased, then the original principal amount of the $2,025,000 promissory note will be reduced first until its original principal amount is $0.00. Thereafter, the original principal amount of the $5,000,000 promissory note will be reduced. If the value of our videoconferencing systems products division inventory exceeds $7,500,000 as of 11:59 p.m. on the closing date, then the original principal amount of the $2,025,000 promissory note will be increased by the full amount of the difference.
- The original principal amount of the promissory notes will be reduced by the full aggregate value of all vacation accrued by us for all of our employees that are hired by VTEL Products Corporation. If the original principal amount of the notes is decreased to account for the vacation accrual, then the original principal amount of the $2,025,000 promissory note will be reduced first until its original principal amount is $0.00. Thereafter, the original principal amount of the $5,000,000 promissory note will be reduced.
- We will pay any of our indemnification obligations by offsetting those amounts against any remaining principal and accrued but unpaid interest on the $5,000,000 promissory note, unless such indemnification obligation arises out of a pending lawsuit disclosed by us to VTEL Products Corporation or tax obligations due by us, in which case we must pay cash.
- Any of VTEL Products Corporation's indemnification obligations will be paid by increasing the aggregate principal amount of the $5,000,000 promissory note.

VTEL Products Corporation will no longer have this obligation following the earlier of the date that it becomes subject to the reporting requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, the acquisition of VTEL Products Corporation or the sale, transfer, gift and distribution by our company of 50% or more of the common stock that our company receives as consideration under the asset purchase agreement; and
- each party will take all other actions necessary to consummate and effect the transactions set forth in the asset purchase agreement.

CONDITIONS TO COMPLETION OF ASSET PURCHASE

Each party's obligation to complete the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division is subject to the prior satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions. If any of the closing conditions are waived, we will consider the facts and circumstances at that time and make a determination as to whether a resolicitation of proxies from our stockholders is appropriate. The following list sets forth the material conditions that have not yet been satisfied and therefore must be satisfied or waived before completion of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division:

- all authorizations, consents or approvals required by governmental entities necessary for the consummation of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division must be filed or obtained;

- no legal restraint or prohibition against the consummation of the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division may be in effect;
- no action or regulation by a governmental entity which would make the sale illegal may have been enacted;
- VTEL Products Corporation, Robert R. Swem, Daniel F. Nix, Richard P. Ford and our company must enter into an acceptable right of first refusal agreement;
- VTEL Products Corporation and our company must enter into a license agreement in the form contained as an exhibit to the asset purchase agreement;
- both parties must obtain certain required consents or approvals to assignment of specified material contracts by us to VTEL Products Corporation;
- we must obtain approval by our stockholders of the sale;
- VTEL Products Corporation must receive debt and equity financing in an amount and on terms that VTEL Products Corporation believes is sufficient to permit it to purchase our videoconferencing systems products division and to operate that division, and the terms of VTEL Products Corporation's financing may not impair its ability to pay the $2,025,000 promissory note;
- VTEL Products Corporation must receive approvals from its lenders and investors to purchase our videoconferencing systems products division in compliance with VTEL Products Corporation's agreements with those lenders and investors;
- SWS Securities, Inc., or another reputable investment banking group, must deliver a fairness opinion to us and to VTEL Products Corporation to the effect that the sale is fair to our stockholders from a financial point of view;

42

- our representations and warranties and the representations and warranties of VTEL Products Corporation must be true and correct in all material respects as of the closing;
- we and VTEL Products Corporation must each perform our obligations under the asset purchase agreement;

- we and VTEL Products Corporation must deliver certain customary closing documents and legal opinions.

TERMINATION OF THE ASSET PURCHASE AGREEMENT

Notwithstanding approval by our stockholders of the asset purchase agreement and the transactions contemplated by the asset purchase agreement, the asset purchase agreement may be terminated, and the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division may be abandoned, at any time prior to the closing, in any of the following ways:

- by the mutual consent of us and VTEL Products Corporation;
- by either us or VTEL Products Corporation if:
 - the other party breaches any representation, warranty, covenant or other agreement in the asset purchase agreement which cannot or has not been cured within 20 days after the breaching party receives notice of the breach;
- a court or other governmental entity takes action to prohibit the transactions described in the asset purchase agreement;

- the closing of the asset purchase agreement has not occurred by January 31, 2002; however, if the party terminating the asset purchase agreement caused the failure of the closing by that date, that party cannot terminate the asset purchase agreement;
- our stockholders do not approve the proposed sale of our videoconferencing systems products division; or
- Robert R. Swem, Daniel F. Nix and/or Richard P. Ford terminates his employment with our company;
- by VTEL Products Corporation, if the assets relating to the videoconferencing systems products division are lost, damaged, impaired, confiscated or condemned, we do not or cannot replace those assets, and it would cost in excess of $250,000 in the aggregate to replace those assets;
- by us if VTEL Products Corporation does not deliver a commitment or other writing for financing sufficient to permit it to purchase our videoconferencing systems products division and operate the division, so that SWS Securities, Inc. is able to deliver a fairness opinion, or if the commitment or other writing expires or is rescinded and not replaced by a similar commitment or writing;
- by us, if we receive a proposal from an unaffiliated third party to acquire:
 - our company;
 - the videoconferencing systems products division assets; or
 - substantially all of the assets of our company;

and our board of directors determines that the proposal is more beneficial to our stockholders than the transactions described in the asset purchase agreement.

If a party is in material breach of the terms of the asset purchase agreement, it may not terminate the agreement without the other party's consent.

EFFECT OF TERMINATION

If the asset purchase agreement is terminated, we and VTEL Products Corporation only will be responsible for the break-up fees described below and will have no other liability to one another.

BREAK-UP FEES

If we terminate the asset purchase agreement based on VTEL Products Corporation's breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in the asset purchase agreement, VTEL Products Corporation must pay to us a break-up fee in the amount of $100,000. If the asset purchase agreement is terminated because of any of the following situations:

- by VTEL Products Corporation based on our breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in the asset purchase agreement;
- by us because the closing of the asset purchase agreement has not occurred by January 31, 2002 and the delay was not caused by VTEL Products Corporation;
- by us due to the failure of our stockholders to approve the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division; or
- by us because of receipt of a third party proposal to purchase our company, the videoconferencing systems products division assets or substantially all of our assets and the determination of the board of directors that it is more beneficial to our stockholders than the transactions described in the asset purchase agreement, then we must pay the total sum of the following as a break-up fee:

- to VTEL Products Corporation, an amount not exceeding $100,000 consisting of all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses of VTEL Products Corporation and its counsel, independent accountants, investment advisors and consultants and any bank fees, placement fees or appraisal fees;
- to VTEL Products Corporation, cash in the amount of $100,000;
- to Daniel F. Nix, cash in the amount of $42,000; and
- to Richard P. Ford, cash in the amount of $32,500.

However, we will not be liable for the break-up fee described above if the asset purchase agreement is terminated by us as a result of:

- VTEL Products Corporation's failure to deliver a commitment or other writing for financing sufficient to permit it to consummate the purchase of the videoconferencing systems products division and operate the division, so that SWS Securities, Inc. is able to deliver a fairness opinion;
- the commitment or other writing for this financing expires or is rescinded and not replaced by a similar commitment or writing; or
- VTEL Products Corporation fails to obtain debt or equity financing in an amount and on terms that VTEL Products Corporation believes is sufficient to permit it to purchase our videoconferencing systems products division and to operate that division.

INDEMNIFICATION

Under the asset purchase agreement, we are obligated to indemnify and hold harmless VTEL Products Corporation and its officers, directors and affiliates from and against all losses that any of those parties incurs relating to:

- liabilities arising under the contracts assumed by VTEL Products Corporation relating to events occurring before the closing date of the asset purchase agreement;

- any breach or default by our company of any representations, warranties, covenants or agreements under the asset purchase agreement or any related agreements;
- any pending or threatened litigation relating to the assets that VTEL Products Corporation is purchasing from us or our videoconferencing systems products division that we have disclosed on a schedule to the asset purchase agreement;
- obligations or liabilities under any contracts that VTEL Products Corporation is not acquiring from us;
- any third party action, claim, proceeding or demand based on our failure to comply with all requirements of the federal securities laws; and
- any law or contract with respect to our employee benefit plans and events relating to our employees that occurred prior to the closing date of the asset purchase agreement, unless those events occurred under the supervision of Robert R. Swem, Daniel F. Nix or Richard P. Ford.

The asset purchase agreement provides that VTEL Products Corporation will indemnify and hold harmless our company and our officers, directors and affiliates from and against all losses that any of those parties incurs relating to:

- liabilities arising under the contracts assumed by VTEL Products Corporation relating to events occurring after the closing date of the asset purchase agreement and all liabilities arising under the liabilities assumed by VTEL Products Corporation;
- any breach or default by VTEL Products Corporation of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement under the asset purchase agreement or any related agreement; and

- the Worker Adjustment Retraining and Notification Act with respect to actions VTEL Products Corporation takes after the closing date of the asset purchase agreement.

LIMITS ON INDEMNIFICATION

Neither party will be obligated to indemnify the other party for any losses under the asset purchase agreement until the aggregate amount of those losses exceeds $100,000 for such party. No limitations on indemnification apply for losses arising from any of the following:

- pending or threatened litigation relating to the assets that VTEL Products Corporation is purchasing from us or the videoconferencing systems products division that we have disclosed on a schedule to the asset purchase agreement;
- a breach or default by us of the representations and warranties regarding taxes; or
- claims for payment of the purchase price, including the promissory notes.

Except as described above, we will not be obligated to indemnify VTEL Products Corporation for any losses in excess of $500,000, and VTEL Products Corporation will not be obligated to indemnify us for any losses in excess of $500,000.

Except for indemnification by us for disclosed litigation and taxes, we will pay any of our indemnification obligations by offsetting those amounts against any remaining principal and accrued but unpaid interest on the $5,000,000 note. Any of VTEL Products Corporation's indemnification obligations will be paid by increasing the aggregate principal amount of the $5,000,000 note.

EXPENSES

VTEL Products Corporation and our company each will bear its own expenses incurred in connection with the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. Our expenses include the costs of preparing, filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission, printing and mailing this proxy statement.

45

AMENDMENT

The asset purchase agreement may only be amended in a written document signed by our company and VTEL Products Corporation.

OTHER AGREEMENTS

RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL AGREEMENT

In conjunction with the closing of the sale, we will also enter into a right of first refusal agreement whereby we will agree to offer to sell the shares of common stock of VTEL Products Corporation that we receive as partial consideration for the videoconferencing systems products division to VTEL Products Corporation before selling the shares to a third party.

GENERAL LICENSE AGREEMENT

Terms

In connection with the asset purchase agreement, we will enter into a general license agreement with VTEL Products Corporation granting it a license in and to certain of our patents, software, proprietary know-how and information currently used in the operation of our videoconferencing systems products division. The license is irrevocable, perpetual, royalty-free, non-exclusive, and non-transferable, except as provided in the license agreement. The license is without the right to sublicense, except under certain limited circumstances.

Term; Termination

The licenses related to patents will continue separately for the life of each of the licensed patents. The licenses related to software will continue separately for the duration of the copyright in each copyrightable work of the licensed software. In addition, the license agreement may be terminated as follows:

- Either party may terminate the license agreement if the other party:
 - becomes bankrupt and such bankruptcy proceeding is not dismissed within 90 days of its filing;
 - has a receiving order made against it and such order is not dismissed within 90 days of its entry; or
 - makes any bill of sale, assignment or composition of a majority of its assets for the benefit of its creditors, or otherwise in violation of the license agreement.
- If either party materially breaches the license agreement and fails to cure the breach within 30 days after the party is given written notice of it, the non-breaching party may terminate the license agreement.

Effect of Termination

If we terminate the license agreement, VTEL Products Corporation may continue to exercise its rights under the license agreement only to the extent necessary to fulfill existing commitments that it has made to its customers to supply licensed products before the date the license agreement is terminated.

Immunity from Lawsuits

In the license agreement, we agree not to assert any claim or action based upon our U.S. Patent 6,181,784, entitled "Computer Controlled Video Multiplexer for Video Conferencing and Message Systems" (the '784 Patent) against VTEL Products Corporation to the extent any infringement of the '784 Patent arises in the field of manufacturing and selling video conferencing systems (excluding certain products, software and tools), from VTEL Products Corporation's operation of the videoconferencing systems products division. We also agree to waive all claims or actions arising out of infringement of the '784 Patent occurring during our ownership of the rights to enforce that patent.

This immunity will not be a restriction passed along to any assignee or transferee of the '784 Patent or to any licensee that includes rights to enforce the patent. VTEL Products Corporation only may transfer the immunity to a first purchaser or acquirer of all or substantially all of its assets or outstanding stock, and not to additional purchasers or transferees. The first transferee must agree in writing with us to abide by and assume all obligations under the license agreement.

We will reduce the outstanding amount coming due after the following events under the $5,000,000 promissory note, dollar for dollar, by the amount of each dollar owed by VTEL Products Corporation to the third party transferee if:

- we sell or license (and such license includes rights to enforce) the '784 Patent to a third party before any sale of all or substantially all of the assets or outstanding stock of VTEL Products Corporation; and
- we do not obtain a non-assertion agreement from that third party transferee for the benefit of VTEL Products Corporation; and
- as a result, VTEL Products Corporation is required to take a license from the third party transferee under the '784 Patent to continue its use of the '784 Patent,

Each reduction will be applied to the earliest maturing payments due under the $5,000,000 note, until that note's principal and accrued interest balance is reduced to $0.00. In the event that royalty payments owed by VTEL Products Corporation to the third party transferee exceed the balance of the $5,000,000 note, those payments will be the sole responsibility of VTEL Products Corporation. If VTEL Products Corporation has sold all or substantially all of its assets or outstanding stock, we will not have any continuing obligations to the purchaser or acquirer in that sale, and our obligations to reduce the amount of the $5,000,000 note on account of royalties paid will terminate effective as of the date of the sale. Upon the consummation of the sale, the full remaining (reduced, if by any amount, as set forth above) amount of the $5,000,000 note will be due and payable.

extent assignable, leased by our company and which are used or held for use primarily in the videoconferencing systems products division.

- (7) A secured subordinated promissory note in the original principal amount of $5,000,000, due five and one-half years after closing date of the asset purchase agreement, subject to adjustment as described under the heading "The Asset Purchase Agreement -- Consideration." In general, the $5,000,000 note will be reduced if the adjustments discussed in footnote (4), exceed $2,025,000, the original amount of the note. In addition, the $5,000,000 note may be reduced further as described under the heading "The Assets Purchase Agreement -- Consideration."
- (8) See the explanation at footnote (9).
- (9) In connection with the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division, we will receive shares of common stock of VTEL Products Corporation equal to approximately 19.9% of VTEL Products Corporation's fully diluted equity on the closing date of the asset purchase agreement. Since we are unable to ascertain the current or future market value of the common stock we are receiving from VTEL Products Corporation, we have derived an estimate of the value of the 19.9% equity, assuming that the 80.1% is equal to the carrying value of the inventory and the net book value of the videoconferencing systems products division. Since we may be unable to realize any value with respect to the 19.9% equity, we have set up a reserve against the promissory note discussed at footnote (7) equal to 100% of our assumed value of the 19.9% equity
- (10) See the explanation at footnote (12).
- (11) This pro forma analysis, based upon the assumptions made in the notes above, indicates that a $25,000 gain will result from the sale of the videoconferencing systems products division.
- (12) In the pro forma statement of operations, we have made adjustments to remove the operations of the videoconferencing systems products division as maintained in our accounting system. We have maintained separate balance sheet and operations information for the videoconferencing systems products division since our third quarter of fiscal 2000, and this information has been disclosed in the notes to our reports filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission since that time. The videoconferencing systems products division generated a loss from operations of _____ during the three months ended October 31, 2001. In order to give effect to the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division as of August 1, 2001, it was necessary for us to remove the result of operations during that period. The corresponding balance sheet effect reduces the accumulated deficit accumulated deficit and increases certain assets indicated at footnotes (3) and (10). We have restored our inventory levels of the Forgent Solutions business to the amount to be reported in our first quarter of fiscal 2002 balance sheet, which does not include the value of assets from discontinued operations. This is shown at footnote (3). The remainder of the pro forma adjustment to the balance sheet has been made to other assets for simplicity. This is shown at footnote (10).

- (13) Represents the preliminary consolidated statement of operations for the three months ended October 31, 2001. As of the date of this proxy statement, our Form 10-Q for the quarter ended October 31, 2001 has not yet been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
- (14) See the explanation at footnote (12).

PROPOSAL TO AMEND CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION
TO CHANGE THE NAME OF VTEL CORPORATION
(ITEM 3)

GENERAL

The board of directors has unanimously approved, and is recommending to our stockholders for approval at the annual meeting, an amendment to Article I of our certificate of incorporation to change our name to Forgent Networks, Inc.

REASONS FOR NAME CHANGE

The board of directors believes that the proposed name change is advisable in order to reflect the change in our business resulting from the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. Since June 2001, we have conducted our services business under the name "Forgent Solutions," and the proposed name change will align the name of our company with the name to be used in our principal business activity after the sale of our videoconferencing systems products division. Further, we have agreed, in the asset purchase agreement, to permit VTEL Products Corporation to conduct the business acquired from us under the name "VTEL" so as to continue to enjoy the goodwill built up in that tradename. We have agreed to change our name from VTEL Corporation and have agreed to assign this name to VTEL Products Corporation. If the amendment to our certificate of amendment changing our name is not approved, we would be obligated under the asset purchase agreement to grant an exclusive, perpetual and irrevocable license to VTEL Products Corporation to use the name "VTEL Products" and any derivations of that name for any purpose throughout the world. A copy of the amendment is attached to this proxy statement as Annex B. The full text of the proposed amendment to the certificate of incorporation is set forth below.

If our stockholders approve this proposal, Article I of our certificate of incorporation will be amended to read in its entirety as follows:

"ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the Corporation is Forgent Networks, Inc."

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AS TO THE AMENDMENT OF OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION TO CHANGE OUR NAME

After careful consideration, the board of directors has determined that it is in our company's best interests and those of our stockholders to change our name from VTEL Corporation to Forgent Networks, Inc. As a result, the board has unanimously approved the amendment to our certificate of incorporation to change our company's name and recommends that you vote to approve the amendment to our certificate of incorporation to change our name.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ADOPTION OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO OUR CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION CHANGING THE NAME OF VTEL CORPORATION.

PROPOSAL TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF AUTHORIZED SHARES UNDER THE VTEL CORPORATION 1996 STOCK OPTION PLAN (ITEM 4)

The board of directors has amended the VTEL Corporation 1996 Stock Option Plan in order to increase the number of shares of common stock available for issuance under the plan from 2,700,000 to 3,800,000. The board of directors increased the number of available shares under the 1996 Stock Option Plan because as of October 31, 2001, only 200,593 shares of common stock remained available for issuance under the plan. By increasing the number of shares available under the 1996 Stock Option Plan, the board of directors believes that the 1996 Stock Option Plan will continue to be a useful stock-related benefit program for attracting and retaining employees and providing additional incentive for all employees to promote the success of our company. We intend to register the 1,100,000 additional shares of common stock issuable under the 1996 Stock Option Plan under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, assuming the stockholders approve the proposal to increase the number of available shares. Shares purchased pursuant to the 1996 Stock Option Plan after the effective date of such registration could immediately be sold in the open market subject, in the case of affiliates (as defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended), to compliance with the provisions of Rule 144 other than the holding period requirement.

DESCRIPTION OF OUR 1996 STOCK OPTION PLAN

A summary of the principal provisions of the 1996 Stock Option Plan is set forth below:

Options granted under the 1996 Stock Option Plan may be either stock options:

- intended to qualify as "incentive stock options" under Section 422A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or
- not intended to qualify for incentive stock option treatment, or non-qualified stock options.

The aggregate fair market value (determined at the time of grant) of shares issuable pursuant to incentive stock options which first become exercisable in any calendar year by a participant in the 1996 Stock Option Plan may not exceed $100,000. Incentive stock options may not be granted under the 1996 Stock Option Plan having an exercise price less than 100% of the fair market value of the common stock on the date of grant, or 110% of fair market value in the case of incentive stock options granted to participants in the 1996 Stock Option Plan holding 10% or more of the voting stock of our company.

The 1996 Stock Option Plan is not required to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, nor is it subject to the provisions of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended, or ERISA.

ELIGIBILITY AND PARTICIPATION

Under the 1996 Stock Option Plan, incentive stock options and non-qualified stock options may be granted to employees, including officers and directors who are employees, of our company or a parent or subsidiary of our company, and non-qualified stock options may be granted to consultants to our company or a parent or subsidiary of our company. It is our current policy that all persons employed by us will be granted options under the 1996 Stock Option Plan upon joining our company. In order to comply with certain changes in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, and thereby insure our ability to deduct, for federal income tax purposes, certain amounts in connection with the exercise of certain options, the maximum number of shares which may be covered by an option granted to any employee in a calendar year may not exceed 300,000.

ADMINISTRATION

The 1996 Stock Option Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the board of directors. Subject to the provisions of the 1996 Stock Option Plan, the Compensation Committee has authority to determine all terms and provisions under which options are granted pursuant to the 1996 Stock Option Plan, including, without limitation:

- the number of shares subject to each option,
- when the option becomes exercisable,
- the vesting schedule for each grant,

53

- the exercise price, and
- the duration of the option, which cannot exceed ten years, or five years for incentive stock options granted to holders of more than 10% of our outstanding common stock.

TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

An option granted under the 1996 Stock Option Plan is not transferable by the optionee except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution. An option granted under the plan is exercisable during the lifetime of the optionee only while the optionee is in the employ of, or serving as a consultant to, our company or within 30 days after termination of employment or the consulting arrangement. References to termination of employment in this proxy statement are deemed to include termination of a consulting arrangement. In the event that termination of employment is due to death or disability, the option is exercisable for a one-year period after termination. If death occurs within 30 days after termination of employment, the option is exercisable for three months after the death of the optionee.

VESTING -- EXERCISABILITY

The 1996 Stock Option Plan does not impose any specific vesting requirements. Options granted by us under our 1996 Stock Option Plan generally vest ratably over a four-year period, but that an optionee may fully exercise options granted to him or her immediately upon such grant. We retain the right to buy back, upon an optionee's termination of employment, at the exercise price paid by the optionee, any shares in which the optionee was not vested at the time of such termination. From time to time, the Compensation Committee may grant options that vest over a shorter period than the standard four-year vesting period.

AMENDMENT

The 1996 Stock Option Plan provides that the board of directors may amend the 1996 Stock Option Plan at any time in such respect as the board of directors may deem desirable; provided that the following amendments require approval by the holders of a majority of the common stock represented at a meeting of stockholders for which a quorum is present:

- any change in the aggregate number of shares of common stock available for issuance under the 1996 Stock Option Plan, subject to adjustments described in the 1996 Stock Option Plan;
- any change in the designation of the class of employees eligible to be granted incentive stock options;
- permitting the granting of an option which extends beyond ten years from date of grant;
- extending the termination date of the 1996 Stock Option Plan past the tenth anniversary of its effective date; and
- as long as we have a class of securities registered under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, at the time of such amendment, any change that would materially increase the benefits accruing to participants under the 1996 Stock Option Plan.

CERTAIN FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion of the federal income tax consequences of participation in the 1996 Stock Option Plan for a typical optionee is only a summary and does not purport to be complete, and differences in individual optionees' financial situations may cause federal, state and local income tax consequences of participation in the 1996 Stock Option Plan to vary.

Non-Qualified Stock Options. An optionee will not recognize any income upon the grant of a non-qualified stock option. Under Rule 16b-3 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act the short-swing profit liability rules under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act should ordinarily not apply to the exercise of a non-qualified stock option under the 1996 Stock Option Plan. As a result, ordinarily upon exercise of the non-qualified stock option, the amount by which the fair market value of the shares transferred at the time of exercise exceeds the exercise price must be treated as ordinary income received by the optionee. See "Exercise of Options with Common Stock" below for a description of the tax consequences of using previously acquired stock to exercise an option. However, if an optionee is subject to such short-swing profit rules, then the amount by which the fair market value of the non-qualified stock option at the time such optionee could sell such shares at a profit without creating liability under Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act exceeds the exercise price must be treated as ordinary income received by the optionee. Such an optionee may elect, pursuant to Section 83(b) of the Internal Revenue Code, to be taxed on the difference between the fair market value of the non-qualified stock option on the date of exercise of the option and the exercise price.

We generally will be entitled to deduct the amount that the optionee is required to treat as ordinary income in our taxable year that ends with or within the taxable year in which the optionee recognizes such income, to the extent such amount constitutes an ordinary and necessary business expense and is not disallowed under section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. We believe that the options to be granted under the 1996 Stock Option Plan meet the requirements for deductible compensation.

Upon a taxable disposition of shares acquired upon exercise of a non-qualified stock option, any amount received by the optionee in excess of the sum of the exercise price and any amount includable in income with respect to the exercise of such non-qualified stock option, will generally be treated as long-term or short-term capital gain, depending upon the holding period of the non-qualified stock option. To qualify for long-term capital gain or loss treatment, the non-qualified stock option must have been held for more than 12 months as a capital asset. The maximum federal income tax rate applicable to individuals for long-term capital gain is currently 20%. If, upon disposition, the optionee receives an amount that is less than the fair market value of the shares acquired upon exercise of the non-qualified stock option on the date the shares are valued, the loss will generally be treated as a long or short-term capital loss, depending upon the holding period of those shares.

Incentive Stock Options. An optionee will not recognize any income upon the grant or exercise of an incentive stock option, nor will we be allowed a corresponding deduction. See "Exercise of Options with Common Stock" below for a description of the tax consequences of using previously acquired stock to exercise an incentive stock option. See "-- Alternative Minimum Tax" below for the application of the alternative minimum tax to the exercise of an incentive stock option.

When shares acquired through the exercise of an incentive stock option are sold or exchanged in a taxable disposition, any amount received by the optionee in excess of the exercise price of the incentive stock option, will be treated as long-term capital gain, and any loss realized will be treated as a long-term capital loss, assuming that the prescribed incentive stock option requirements described below are met.

To obtain the favorable tax treatment for incentive stock option under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code, an optionee must not dispose of shares acquired through the exercise of the incentive stock option within two years of the grant date and within one year from the date of exercise of the incentive stock option.

If the holding period requirements referred to above are not met, the disposition of the shares acquired upon exercise of the incentive stock option will be treated as a "disqualifying disposition." Upon a disqualifying disposition, the amount by which the lesser of (1) the fair market value of the shares acquired upon exercise of the incentive stock option on the date of exercise, or (2) the amount realized on the sale, exceeds the exercise price will be treated as ordinary income, and any gain in excess of the amount in (1) will be long-term or short-term capital gain, depending on the holding period of the shares acquired upon exercise of the incentive stock option. If the shares acquired upon exercise of the incentive stock option are sold for an amount less than the exercise price, such loss will be treated as a long-term or short-term capital loss, depending on the holding period of such shares. In the event of a disqualifying disposition, we will be allowed a deduction in an amount equal to the amount that the optionee is required to treat as ordinary income in our taxable year that ends with or within the taxable year in which the optionee is required to recognize such ordinary income.

Alternative Minimum Tax. For purposes of computing the alternative minimum tax, an optionee must include in alternative minimum taxable income the amount by which the fair market value of shares of common stock subject to incentive stock options (at the time they are no longer subject to a substantial risk of forfeiture or are freely transferable) exceeds the exercise price. If an optionee exercises an incentive stock option and disposes of the shares acquired upon exercise of the incentive stock option in the same year and the amount realized is less than the fair market value of such shares at the time of exercise, the amount of income that must be included in alternative minimum taxable income may not exceed the excess, if any, of the amount realized from the disposition over the optionee's adjusted basis in the shares acquired upon exercise of the incentive stock option.

EXERCISE OF OPTION

Under the 1996 Stock Option Plan there must be a continuous employment, or consulting, relationship between the optionee and our company from the date of the grant of an option until the date of exercise (however, the optionee may exercise an option within 30 days following his termination of employment), unless the option terminates due to his death or disability. If the optionee's employment terminates as a result of his disability, the optionee may exercise his options within 12 months of his termination of employment. If the optionee's employment terminates as a result of his death, the option may be exercised within 12 months after the date of death of the optionee by the optionee's estate or by a person who acquired the right to exercise the option by bequest or inheritance. If the optionee's death occurs within 30 days after the termination of his employment relationship with us, the option may be exercised within three months of the optionee's death by the optionee's estate or a person who acquired the right to exercise the option by bequest or inheritance.

EXERCISE OF OPTIONS WITH COMMON STOCK

Non-Qualified Stock Options. If an optionee exercises a non-qualified stock option by paying the exercise price with shares acquired upon exercise of incentive stock options that have been held for the requisite holding periods or shares of common stock other than those shares, the optionee will be treated as having made a nontaxable exchange of the number of shares transferred for an equal number of shares received. The basis and holding period of the exchanged stock will be the same as the basis and holding period of the stock transferred. The fair market value of all shares received in excess of the exchanged stock are treated as compensation income to the optionee, and our company generally will have a corresponding deduction to the extent the amount constitutes an ordinary and necessary business expense and is not disallowed by section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code. That excess stock will have a basis equal to the amount included in optionee's compensation income and a holding period that begins on the date the non-qualified stock option is exercised. An optionee who is subject to the short-swing profit rules of Section 16(b) of the Securities Exchange Act should see the discussion under "Non-Qualified Stock Options" above.

If an optionee exercises a non-qualified stock option by paying the exercise price with shares acquired upon exercise of an incentive stock option that have not been held for the requisite holding period, the transaction will be treated as a disqualifying disposition as described above.

Incentive Stock Options. If an optionee exercises an incentive stock option by paying the exercise price with shares of common stock other than incentive option shares, the optionee will be treated as having received exchanged stock (the number of shares received equal to the number of shares surrendered) and excess stock (the remaining number of shares received). The exchanged stock will have a basis and holding period that are the same as the basis and holding period of the shares surrendered. The excess stock will have a basis of zero and its holding period will begin on the date after the incentive stock option is exercised. Both the exchanged stock and the excess stock must be held for the requisite holding period to avoid a disqualifying disposition.

If an optionee exercises an incentive stock option by paying the exercise price with shares acquired upon the exercise of incentive stock options that have not been held for all requisite holding periods, the optionee will have made a disqualifying disposition of the such shares acquired upon the exercise of incentive stock options. The optionee will be treated as having exchanged the shares acquired upon the exercise of incentive stock options with the lowest basis. The optionee will have compensation income with respect to such surrendered shares acquired upon the exercise of incentive stock options. See Exercise of Options with Common Stock -- Incentive Stock Options, above. The exchanged stock received will have a basis equal to the basis of the shares acquired upon the exercise of incentive stock options surrendered, increased by the amount of compensation income recognized by the optionee, and a holding period that will be the same as the holding period of the shares acquired upon the exercise of incentive stock options surrendered. The excess stock will have a basis of zero and its holding period will begin on the date the incentive stock option is exercised. The exchanged stock and the excess stock received must be held for the requisite holding period to avoid a disqualifying disposition of the exchanged stock and excess stock received. If an optionee exercises an incentive stock option by paying the exercise price with incentive option shares that have been held for all of the requisite holding periods, the result will be the same as if the optionee had not used incentive option shares to exercise the option.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AS TO THE AMENDMENT OF OUR 1996 STOCK OPTION PLAN TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES ISSUABLE UNDER THE 1996 STOCK OPTION PLAN

After careful consideration, the board of directors has determined that it is in our company's best interests and those of our stockholders to amend our 1996 Stock Option Plan as described above. As a result, the board has unanimously approved the amendment to our 1996 Stock Option Plan and recommends that you vote to approve the amendment to our 1996 Stock Option Plan.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ADOPTION OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO OUR 1996 STOCK OPTION PLAN TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES OF OUR COMMON STOCK ISSUABLE UNDER THE 1996 STOCK OPTION PLAN.

PROPOSAL TO AMEND THE VTEL CORPORATION
1992 DIRECTOR STOCK OPTION PLAN TO MODIFY THE FORMULA
PURSUANT TO WHICH ADDITIONAL OPTIONS MAY BE GRANTED
(ITEM 5)

GENERAL

In order to attract and retain nonemployee directors for our company, the board of directors has adopted, and our stockholders have previously approved, the VTEL Corporation 1992 Director Stock Option Plan. An aggregate of 250,000 shares of common stock may be issued upon the exercise of options granted under the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan.

In general, the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan presently provides for the automatic grant of an option to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock, having an exercise price of the fair market value of our common stock at the date of grant, to each nonemployee director upon initial election or appointment to the board of directors. These options vest over a three-year period. The plan also presently provides that each nonemployee director will receive additional options to purchase 12,500 shares of common stock, having an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant, such options vesting over a three-year period, at the time that the eligible director's prior options granted under the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan become fully exercisable and vested.

The board of directors has authorized an amendment to the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan, subject to stockholder approval, which would modify the existing formula grant. As amended, nonemployee directors will continue to receive an automatic grant of an option to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock upon initial election or appointment. Thereafter, in lieu of the existing formula grant described in the preceding paragraph, each nonemployee director will receive options to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock on each anniversary date of the nonemployee director's election or appointment to the board of directors. These options will vest over a three-year period. Each option granted will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant. This amendment is based on market data that has been reviewed by the board of directors, and is believed by the board of directors to be necessary in order to enhance the usefulness of the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan in attracting and retaining nonemployee directors. As of October 15, 2001, 107,001 shares remain available for grant under the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan. The amendment, if approved, will enable our company to continue the purposes of the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan, by providing additional incentives to attract and retain qualified nonemployee directors.

The proposed amendment requires the approval of our stockholders pursuant to the terms of the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan. Assuming the presence of a quorum, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock present and voting at the annual meeting in person or by proxy is necessary to approve the above described amendment to the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan. Proxies will be voted for or against such approval in accordance with the specifications marked thereon and, if no specifications are made, will be voted in favor of such approval.

If approved by our stockholders at the annual meeting, an amendment will be made to the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan in order to modify the formula for option grants, as described above.

The following table sets forth information with respect to options received by or allocated to each indicated individual or group listed in the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan in fiscal 2001.

DESCRIPTION OF THE VTEL CORPORATION 1992 DIRECTOR STOCK OPTION PLAN

Under the provisions of the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan, non-qualified stock options may be granted to the nonemployee directors of our company. The 1992 Director Stock Option Plan provides that upon the initial election or appointment of a person who is not an employee of our company as director of our company, that person will be granted an option to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock at the fair market value of common stock on the date of grant. At the time the initial grant and each subsequent grant are fully vested, i.e., after 36 months, each nonemployee director is entitled to an additional grant of options covering 12,500 shares. If the amendment is approved, nonemployee directors will continue to receive an automatic grant of an option to purchase 25,000 shares of common stock upon initial election or appointment. Thereafter, in lieu of the existing formula grant described above, each nonemployee director will receive options to purchase 10,000 shares of common stock on each anniversary date of the nonemployee director's election or appointment to the board of directors. These options will vest over a three-year period. Each option granted will have an exercise price equal to the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant.

Pursuant to the terms of the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan, each option becomes exercisable on a cumulative basis as to one-thirty-sixth of the shares subject to the option on each monthly anniversary of the date of grant of the option. In the event an optionee ceases to serve as a director, options granted under the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan may be exercised by the optionee (or, in the event of his death, by his administrator, executor or heirs) at any time within 12 months after the optionee ceases to serve as a director, to the extent such option was exercisable at the time of such cessation of service. Each option will expire after the expiration of 10 years from the date of the grant. An option granted under the current 1992 Director Stock Option Plan is not transferable by the optionee except by will or by the laws of descent and distribution.

The 1992 Director Stock Option Plan is administered by the board of directors. Under the provisions of the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan, the board of directors has the authority to:

- issue options granted in accordance with the formula set forth in the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan to eligible directors; and
- prescribe the form or forms of instruments evidencing awards.

The 1992 Director Stock Option Plan is not required to be qualified under Section 401(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, nor is it subject to the provisions of ERISA.

As of October 15, 2001, options to purchase a total of 126,167 shares of common stock were outstanding under the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan. A total of 16,832 shares have been issued under the 1992 Director Stock Option Plan.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AS TO THE AMENDMENT OF OUR 1992
DIRECTOR STOCK OPTION PLAN TO MODIFY THE FORMULA PURSUANT TO WHICH ADDITIONAL OPTIONS ARE GRANTED TO DIRECTORS

After careful consideration, the board of directors has determined that it is in our company's best interests and those of our stockholders to amend our 1992 Director Stock Option Plan as described above. As a result, the board has unanimously approved the amendment to our 1992 Director Stock Option Plan and recommends that you vote to approve the amendment to our 1992 Director Stock Option Plan.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ADOPTION OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO OUR 1992 DIRECTOR STOCK OPTION PLAN TO MODIFY THE FORMULA PURSUANT TO WHICH ADDITIONAL SHARES ARE GRANTED TO NONEMPLOYEE DIRECTORS UNDER THE 1992 DIRECTOR STOCK OPTION PLAN.

PROPOSAL TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES THAT EMPLOYEES MAY PURCHASE UNDER THE
VTEL CORPORATION EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN
(ITEM 6)

The board of directors has authorized an amendment to the VTEL Corporation Employee Stock Purchase Plan, subject to stockholder approval, in order to increase the number of shares of common stock that each employee may purchase under that plan from 1,200 shares to 2,500 shares per quarter. The board of directors authorized the amendment to enhance the attractiveness of this plan to employees. By increasing the number of shares that the employees may purchase under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the board of directors believes that the Employee Stock Purchase Plan will continue to be a useful stock-related benefit program for attracting and retaining employees and providing additional incentive for all employees to promote the success of our company. The proposed amendment requires the approval of our stockholders pursuant to the terms of the Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Assuming the presence of a quorum, the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock present and voting at the annual meeting in person or by proxy is necessary to approve the above described amendment to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Proxies will be voted for or against such approval in accordance with the specifications marked thereon and, if no specifications are made, will be voted in favor of such approval.

DESCRIPTION OF VTEL CORPORATION EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN

GENERAL

The VTEL Corporation Employee Stock Purchase Plan was adopted by the board of directors on April 29, 1993, and subsequently approved by our stockholders. The Employee Stock Purchase Plan authorizes as of October 15, 2001 the issuance of up to 1,450,000 shares of common stock. The purpose of the Employee Stock Purchase Plan is to assist eligible employees of our company and its subsidiaries in acquiring a stock ownership interest in our company through regular payroll deductions and cash contributions and thereby encourage them to remain in the employ of our company or our subsidiaries. The Employee Stock Purchase Plan allows participants to purchase shares of common stock at a price equal to the lesser of 85% of the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant of the option, or 85% of the fair market value of our common stock at the time of exercise. See "-- Exercise Price" below. The Employee Stock Purchase Plan is not subject to the qualification requirements of Section 401 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, nor is the Employee Stock Purchase Plan subject to any provisions of ERISA. No maximum period of duration has been established for the Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The board of directors does have the power to suspend or terminate the Employee Stock Purchase Plan at any time, provided such suspension or termination does not affect outstanding options granted under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

ELIGIBILITY AND PARTICIPATION

Any individual who is customarily employed by our company or our subsidiaries for more than 20 hours per week and more than five months in a 12-month period is eligible to participate in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan for one or more offering periods, provided that the individual is an employee on the first day of such offering period or periods. In no event may options be granted under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan to an employee who immediately after the granting of the option would own capital stock of our company (including capital stock of our company which the individual may purchase under outstanding options) possessing more than 5% of the total combined voting power or value of all classes of stock of our company or any of our affiliates. In addition, no option may be granted which would permit an employee's rights to purchase stock under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan and all other employee stock purchase plans of our company and our affiliates to accrue at a rate which exceeds $25,000 of the fair market value of such stock, determined at the time such option is granted, for each calendar year or portion thereof in which such stock option is outstanding. An eligible employee may become a participant by completing and returning to our company a written stock purchase agreement indicating the employee's desire to participate in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan and the amount in payroll deductions, cash or stock which the employee wishes to contribute under the Employee Stock

Purchase Plan in each offering period. Such agreement shall become effective on the first day of the offering period and will remain effective for subsequent offering periods unless the employee's participation in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan has terminated. A participant may increase or decrease the rate of contribution to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan by amending his or her authorization for payroll deductions or cash or stock contributions. An amended authorization must be filed at least two weeks prior to the commencement date of the offering period for which it is to become effective.

ADMINISTRATION

The Employee Stock Purchase Plan is administered by the Compensation Committee of the board of directors. The Compensation Committee has full authority to administer the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, including authority to interpret and construe any provision of the Employee Stock Purchase Plan and to adopt the rules and regulations for administering the Employee Stock Purchase Plan as it may deem advisable. Decisions of the Compensation Committee are binding on all participants. All expenses of establishing and administering the Employee Stock Purchase Plan are paid by our company without charge to participants.

SHARES AND AMOUNTS SUBJECT TO PLAN

As of October 15, 2001, the maximum number of shares of common stock of our company which may be issued under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan cannot exceed 1,450,000 shares, subject to adjustment in certain circumstances. To prevent dilution or enlargement of the rights of participants under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, adjustments in the number of shares subject to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the number of shares subject to outstanding options, the maximum number of shares for which options may be granted to any one employee, and option exercise prices are to be made in the event of merger, consolidation, reorganization, recapitalization, stock split, stock dividend in excess of 2% or other change in the corporate structure of our company. Upon dissolution or liquidation of our company, other than in connection with a reorganization, merger or consolidation in which the surviving corporation prior to or concurrent with its succession to the business of our company assumes and continues the restated Employee Stock Purchase Plan by substituting its common stock for our common stock underlying the options granted thereunder, all options granted under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan will terminate. However, each optionee will have the right to exercise his or her outstanding options at any time prior to or concurrently with the consummation of such merger, consolidation or reorganization to the full extent it has not been exercised. If the number of shares for which options are to be exercised on any date exceeds the number of shares then remaining available under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan, the Compensation Committee will make a pro rata allocation of the remaining available shares in a manner as nearly uniform as practicable. Participant contributions not applied to the purchase of common stock will be returned without interest. No person will have any rights as a stockholder with respect to any shares of common stock covered by an option prior to the date of issuance of a stock certificate for the shares. No adjustments will be made for dividends or other rights for which the record date is prior to the date the stock certificate is issued.

TERMS OF OPTIONS -- METHOD OF PAYMENT

The maximum number of shares for which options may be granted to any participant during any single offering period shall not exceed 1,200 shares, or 2,500 shares if the amendment is approved. There is no minimum number of shares for which options may be granted to an employee. Each participant may contribute up to 15% of base pay, at the rate of contribution elected prior to the commencement date of an offering, through any of the following methods:

- regular payroll deductions in multiples of $5;
- lump sum cash payments made not later than two weeks before the last day of an offering period; or
- stock.

The amount of each participant's contribution is held by our company in a special account, but our company has no obligation to pay interest on account balances. Base pay is defined in the Employee Stock

61

Purchase Plan as regular straight-time earnings for an offering period plus sales commissions, bonuses and other incentive payments for the three-month period immediately preceding the offering period.

OFFERING PERIODS

The initial offering period under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan had a duration of three months and commenced on July 1, 1993 and ended on September 30, 1993. Subsequent offering periods are for successive three-month periods commencing on October 1, January 1, April 1, and July 1 and ending on the December 31, March 31, June 30 and September 30, respectively. Except as described below, a participant's option is automatically exercised on the last day of the offering period by applying the funds then in the participant's account to the purchase of our common stock. If any money remains in the participant's account which is less than the price of one share of our common stock, then the money is held for purchase of shares in the next offering period. Money remaining in the participant's account by reason of the limitation on the maximum number of shares purchasable in a single offering period is refunded without interest promptly after the close of the offering period. If a participant does not desire to have an option exercised, the participant must so notify our company in writing at least two weeks prior to the last day of the offering period. As soon as reasonably practicable after receipt of the notice, our company may deliver to such participant a cash payment equal to the total of the contributions credited to his or her account during such offering period. No interest shall be paid on such contributions. The non-exercise of an option will not affect the participant's ability to participate in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan for subsequent offering periods, and the participant's stock purchase agreement will remain in force.

EXERCISE PRICE

The purchase price of our common stock covered by each option is equal to the lesser of:

- 85% of the fair market value of our common stock on the date of grant of the option, or the first day of the offering period; or
- 85% of the fair market value of our common stock at the time of exercise, or the last day of the offering period.

The fair market value is deemed to be equal to the mean of the high and low reported sales prices of our common stock on the NASDAQ National Market System, or other quotation system or stock exchange, on which our common stock is traded on the date such value is to be determined.

WITHDRAWAL -- TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT -- DEATH

An employee's participation in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan will be terminated when the participant voluntarily withdraws from the Employee Stock Purchase Plan upon written notification to the Compensation Committee, when the participant's employment terminates, or upon the death of the participant. Within 30 days after an employee's participation in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan is terminated, all funds in the employee's account will be returned without interest. A voluntary withdrawal from the Employee Stock Purchase Plan will not affect a participant's ability to participate in the Employee Stock Purchase

Plan for any subsequent offering period provided the participant files a new stock purchase agreement and payroll deduction authorization with the Compensation Committee at least two weeks prior to the commencement of the offering period. Each participant may designate a beneficiary or beneficiaries of the participant's interest in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Upon the participant's death, any balance in the participant's account will be distributed to such beneficiary or beneficiaries, or in the absence of such designation, to the executor or administrator of the participant's estate.

TRANSFERABILITY -- DELIVERY

Options granted pursuant to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan may not be transferred by a participant and are exercisable only during the participant's lifetime. After the exercise of options at the end of each offering period, our company will, as expeditiously as possible, deliver to each participant certificates evidencing the shares of stock purchased through that exercise. Our company may, however, postpone delivery of shares for any period as may be required for it to comply with applicable requirements of law or quotation system or stock exchange on which our common stock is traded.

TERMINATION OR AMENDMENT

The board of directors may at any time, with respect to any shares not at the time subject to outstanding options, suspend or terminate the Employee Stock Purchase Plan. The board of directors may also amend the Employee Stock Purchase Plan from time to time as it deems advisable. However, the board of directors must obtain prior stockholder approval before amending the Employee Stock Purchase Plan to:

- increase the maximum number of shares subject to the Employee Stock Purchase Plan or the maximum number of shares for which options may be granted to any one employee, other than adjustments to prevent dilution or enlargement of participant rights in the event of fundamental changes to our company;
- materially increase the benefits accruing to participants;
- materially modify the eligibility requirements for Employee Stock Purchase Plan participation;
- modify the terms of any option granted under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan so as to render such options unqualified for special tax treatment under Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code.

CERTAIN FEDERAL TAX INCOME CONSEQUENCES

The following discussion of the federal income tax consequences of participation in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan for typical optionee is only a summary, does not purport to be complete and does not cover, among other things, state and local tax treatment of participation in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan. Also, differences in individual optionees' financial situations may cause federal, state and local income tax consequences of participation in the Employee Stock Purchase Plan to vary. The Employee Stock Purchase Plan is intended to be an "employee stock purchase plan" within the meaning of Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code. Under a plan that qualifies as an "employee stock purchase plan" within the meaning of Section 423 of the Internal Revenue Code, no taxable income will be reportable by a participant by reason of the grant of the option or its exercise. A participant will recognize taxable income in the year of disposition of the stock acquired under the Employee Stock Purchase Plan or in the year of death if the participant dies while still owning the stock. Generally, a disposition for this purpose includes any transfer of legal title, including a transfer by sale, exchange or gift, but does not include a transfer into joint ownership if the participant remains one of the joint owners, a pledge or a transfer by bequest or inheritance. If the participant disposes of stock within two years from the date the underlying option was granted, the participant will realize ordinary income in the year of disposition equal to the amount by which the fair market value of the stock on the date the option was exercised exceeded the exercise price. In such instances, the amount of the ordinary income will be added to the participant's basis in the stock, and any additional gain or any loss recognized on the disposition will be a capital gain or loss. The gain or loss will be long-term if the stock has been held for more than eighteen months. If the participant disposes of stock more than two years after the date the underlying option was granted, the participant will realize ordinary income in the year of disposition equal to the lesser of the excess of the fair market value of the stock at the time of disposition over the exercise price for such stock, or the excess of the fair market value of the stock at the time the option was granted over the exercise price for the stock. The amount of any ordinary income will be added to the participant's basis in the stock, and any gain recognized upon the disposition will be a long-term capital gain. If the fair market value of the stock on the date of disposition is less than the exercise price, there will be no ordinary income and any loss recognized will be a long-term capital loss. If the participant still owns the stock at the time of death, the lesser of the excess of the fair market value of the stock at the time of death over the exercise price for the stock, or the excess of the fair market value of the stock at the time the option was granted over the exercise price for the stock will constitute ordinary income in the year of death. If a share is disposed of within two years after the date the underlying option was granted, then the employer corporation will be entitled to a deduction in the year of disposition equal to the amount of ordinary income realized by the participant as a result of the disposition. In all other cases, no deduction is allowed.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AS TO THE AMENDMENT OF OUR EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK THAT EACH EMPLOYEE MAY PURCHASE UNDER THE EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN FROM 1,200 SHARES TO 2,500 SHARES PER QUARTER

After careful consideration, the board of directors has determined that it is in our company's best interests and those of our stockholders to amend our Employee Stock Purchase Plan as described above. As a result, the board has unanimously approved the amendment to our Employee Stock Purchase Plan and recommends that you vote to approve the amendment to our Employee Stock Purchase Plan.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" THE ADOPTION OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO OUR EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN TO INCREASE THE NUMBER OF SHARES OF COMMON STOCK THAT EACH EMPLOYEE MAY PURCHASE UNDER THE EMPLOYEE STOCK PURCHASE PLAN FROM 1,200 SHARES TO 2,500 SHARES PER QUARTER.

RATIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT OF AUDITORS
(ITEM 7)

Pursuant to the recommendation of the Audit Committee, the board of directors has appointed Ernst & Young LLP, independent accountants, to audit our consolidated financial statements for the year ending July 31, 2002. We are advised that no member of Ernst & Young LLP has any direct financial interest or material indirect financial interest in our company or any of its subsidiaries or, during the past three years, has had any connection with our company or any of its subsidiaries in the capacity of promoter, underwriter, voting trustee, director, officer or employee.

A representative of Ernst & Young LLP is expected to be present at the annual meeting of our stockholders, will have the opportunity to make a statement if such representative desires to do so and will be available to respond to appropriate questions.

While stockholder ratification is not required for the selection of Ernst & Young LLP since the board of directors has the responsibility for the selection of our company's independent auditors, the selection is being submitted for ratification at the annual meeting solely with a view toward soliciting the stockholders' opinion thereon, which opinion will be taken into consideration in future deliberations.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE "FOR" RATIFICATION BY THE STOCKHOLDERS OF THIS APPOINTMENT.

OTHER MATTERS

As of this date, the board of directors does not know of any business to be brought before the annual meeting other than as specified above. However, if any matters properly come before the annual meeting, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote such proxy in accordance with their judgment on such matters.

(g) Insurance. No event has occurred, including the failure by Seller to give any notice or information or the delivery of any inaccurate or erroneous notice or information, which limits or impairs the rights of Seller under any insurance policies maintained by or for the benefit of Seller or its assets in such a manner as has had or could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. Excluding insurance policies that have expired and been replaced in the ordinary course of business, no insurance policy has been canceled within the last two years prior to the date hereof.

(h) Owned Real Property. The Acquired Assets do not include any real property, other than the Leased Real Property.

(i) Leased Real Property. Schedule 2.1(b) contains an accurate description of all the leasehold interests relating to the Products Business as now conducted. Each such lease is a valid and binding obligation of Seller and is in full force and effect without amendment. Seller is not, and to the Knowledge of the Seller, no other party is, in default under any such lease. Subject to obtaining the Consents set forth on the Disclosure Schedule, Seller has the full legal power and authority to assign its rights under such leases to Buyer.

(j) Personal Property. The Acquired Assets comprise all Personal Property used or held for use primarily in connection with the Products Business or which permit the operation of the Products Business as now conducted. Seller has good and valid title to, or a valid leasehold or license interest in, all Personal Property and none of the Personal Property is subject to any Lien or other encumbrances, other than the Liens listed on the Disclosure Schedule ("Permitted Liens"). Seller is not, and to the Knowledge of the Seller, no other party is, in default under any of the Contracts relating to the Personal Property where such default would be reasonably likely to adversely affect the Personal Property governed by such Contract. The Personal Property is in good operating condition and repair (ordinary wear and tear excepted).

(k) Liens and Encumbrances. All of the Acquired Assets are free and clear of all Liens, except for the Permitted Liens. At the Closing, all of the Acquired Assets shall be free and clear of all Liens, other than Permitted Liens, none of which will adversely affect the use and possession by Buyer of such Acquired Assets.

(l) Environmental Matters. To the Knowledge of Seller, there are not any Hazardous Substances in, on or under the Acquired Assets or the Lease Real Property that (i) are in a condition or location that violates any Applicable Laws, (ii) required or would require remediation under Applicable Laws, (iii) give rise to a claim for damages or compensation by any effected person, or (iv) would cause any material loss, cost, liability or expense in connection with any violation of any Applicable Law, any order of any Governmental Entity or any claim by any private or public person arising out of any exposure of any person or property to any such Hazardous Substance.

(m) Taxes. Seller has timely filed or caused to be timely filed all Tax Returns affecting the Products Business or the Acquired Assets which are required to be filed by Seller, all such Tax Returns which have been filed are accurate and complete in all material respects, and Seller has timely paid all Taxes shown on such returns or on any Tax assessment received by Seller to the extent that such Taxes have become due (except to the extent that such Taxes are being contested in good faith by Seller, which contests are listed on the Disclosure Schedule). Seller is not currently the beneficiary of any extension of time within which to file any Tax Return. There are no Liens for Taxes upon the Products Business or the Acquired Assets, other than statutory liens for Taxes not yet due and payable. Seller has not received notice of any Tax deficiency or delinquency applicable to the Products Business. To the Knowledge of Seller, there are no legal, administrative, or Tax proceedings pursuant to which Seller is or could reasonably be made liable for any taxes, penalties, interest, or other charges, the liability for which could extend to Buyer as transferee of the Products Business or the Acquired Assets. None of the Acquired Assets directly or indirectly secures any debt the interest on which is exempt from tax under sec. 103(a) of the Code, and none of the Acquired Assets is "tax-exempt use property" within the meaning of sec. 168(h) of the Code.

The Acquired Assets constitute the entire operating assets of a separate branch, division, or identifiable segment of a business as such phrase is used in sec. 151.304(b)(2) of the Texas Tax Code and sec. 3.316(d) of Title 34 of the Texas Administrative Code.

(n) Certain Agreements. The Disclosure Schedule lists each Contract (other than outstanding purchase orders entered into in the ordinary course of business and Contracts entered into under the authority, and with the knowledge of, the Business Managers) to which Seller is a party or which is binding on the Acquired Assets and that relate primarily to the Products Business or the Acquired Assets, other than those described in the definition of "Excluded Contracts." Each listed Contract is a valid and binding obligation of Seller and is in full force and effect without amendment. Seller has provided Buyer with a true, correct and complete copy of each listed Contract, unless modified under the authority or knowledge of the Business Managers, and no such listed Contract has been modified, either in writing or verbally.

(o) Employee Benefit Matters; Labor; Employment. Except as set forth on the Disclosure Schedule, to the extent that any of the following could in any way adversely affect the Buyer, the Acquired Assets or the Products Business:

(i) Neither the Seller nor any corporation, trade, business, or entity under common control with the Seller, within the meaning of Section 414(b), (c), (m), or (o) of the Code or Section 4001 of ERISA, ("Commonly Controlled Entity") contributes to or has an obligation to contribute to, nor has the Seller or any Commonly Controlled Entity at any time within six years prior to the Closing Date contributed to or had an obligation to contribute to, either (1) a multiemployer plan within the meaning of Section 3(37) of ERISA or (2) any plan subject to Title IV of ERISA;

(ii) All obligations, whether arising by operation of law or by contract, required to be performed under Section 4980B of the Code (or similar state law) have been performed; and

(iii) Seller shall retain or assume each Employee Benefit Plan, and Buyer shall not assume or be liable for any of the obligations under any Employee Benefit Plan maintained by a Commonly Controlled Entity.

(iv) Seller is not bound by or subject to any written or oral, express or implied, contract, commitment or arrangement with any labor union and the labor union has not requested or to Seller's Knowledge sought to represent any of the employees, representatives or agents of Seller. There is no strike or other labor dispute involving Seller pending or to Seller's

Knowledge threatened that could have Material Adverse Effect on the Products Business nor is Seller aware of any labor organizing activity involving employees of the Products Business.

(p) Patents, Trademarks, etc. Schedule 2.1(g) sets forth a true and complete list of all of the Trademarks related primarily to the Products Business. Seller owns or, subject to obtaining the Consents set forth on the Disclosure Schedule, has the right to license to Buyer all such Licensed Patents, Licensed Software, Licensed Know-how, Trademarks and the Acquired Assets set forth in Section 2.1(i) (together, the "Acquired Intellectual Property") and the Acquired Software in accordance with the terms of this Agreement and the License Agreement. Seller has taken all actions reasonable in light of its financial position to protect the Acquired Intellectual Property. To Seller's Knowledge, the Acquired Intellectual Property (excluding the Licensed Patents) as used in the Products Business, does not infringe or violate any intellectual property rights of any other person and, except as set forth on the Disclosure Schedule, does not require the Seller, and, except as set forth on the Disclosure Schedule, to the knowledge of Seller will not require Buyer, to obtain any license or other agreement to use any intellectual property rights of any other person. To the Knowledge of Seller, the Licensed Patents do not infringe or violate any patents or other intellectual property rights of any other person. Except as set forth in the Disclosure Schedule, there are no outstanding options, licenses or agreements of any kind relating to the Acquired Intellectual Property (excluding the Licensed Patents), nor is Seller bound by or a party to any options, licenses or agreements of any kind with respect to the Acquired Intellectual Property that are necessary for the Products Business. Seller has not granted rights to manufacture, produce, assemble, license, market or sell any products of the Products Business to any other person and is not bound by any agreement that affects Seller's exclusive right to develop, manufacture, assemble, distribute and market all of the products sold in the Products Business, except as set forth on the Disclosure Schedule.

(q) Relationships with Suppliers. To the Seller's Knowledge, no current supplier to the Products Business of items material to the conduct of the Products Business has threatened to terminate its relationship with Seller for any reason.

(r) No Commissions. Neither Seller nor any person on Seller's behalf has incurred any finder's, broker's or agent's fees or commissions or similar compensation in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby which would impose any obligation or liability upon Buyer.

(s) Disclosure. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement, neither Buyer, nor any of Buyer's officers or directors, shall be entitled to assert the breach of or be entitled to indemnification with respect to a representation or warranty to the extent that the Business Managers had actual knowledge that such representation or warranty was false or inaccurate as of the date hereof.

A-11

SECTION 3.2 Representations and Warranties of Buyer. Buyer represents and warrants to Seller as follows:

(a) Organization, Standing and Power. Buyer is a corporation duly organized, validly existing, and in good standing under the laws of the State of Delaware and has all requisite corporate power and authority to own, lease, and operate its properties and to carry on its business as now being conducted.

(b) Authority. Buyer has all requisite corporate power and authority to enter into this Agreement and each other agreement, document, and instrument required to be executed in accordance herewith (collectively, the "Buyer's Agreements") to which Buyer is a party and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby and thereby. The execution and delivery of the Buyer's Agreements by Buyer and the consummation by Buyer of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby have been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Buyer. The Buyer's Agreements have been, or upon execution and delivery will be, duly executed and delivered and constitute, or upon execution and delivery will constitute, the valid and binding obligations of Buyer, subject, as to enforceability, to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent conveyance, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally and to general principles of equity (regardless of whether enforcement is sought in a proceeding at law or in equity).

(c) No Conflict; Required Filings and Consents. The execution and delivery of the Buyer's Agreements by Buyer do not, and the performance by Buyer of the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby will not (i) violate, conflict with, or result in any breach of any provision of Buyer's Certificate of Incorporation or Bylaws, (ii) violate, conflict with, or result in a violation or breach of, or constitute a default (with or without due notice or lapse of time or both) under, or permit the termination of, or result in the acceleration of, or entitle any party to accelerate (whether as a result of a change of control of Seller or otherwise) any material obligation, or result in the loss of any material benefit, or give any person the right to require any security to be repurchased under any of the terms, conditions, or provisions of any material Contract to which Buyer is a party or by which it may be bound or subject, or (iii) violate any order, writ, judgment, injunction, decree, statute, law, rule, or regulation applicable to Buyer or by which it is bound or subject, unless such violation would not be reasonably likely to give rise to a Material Adverse Effect.

(d) Required Filings and Consents. The execution, delivery and performance of Buyer's Agreements by Buyer does not require the consent of a Governmental Entity or a third party not affiliated with Buyer.

(e) No Commissions. Neither Buyer nor any person on Buyer's behalf has incurred any finder's, broker's or agent's fees or commissions or similar compensation in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby which would impose any obligation or liability upon Seller.

(f) Solvency. The fair value of the property of Buyer is greater than the total amount of the liabilities of Buyer as of the date hereof, and, as of the date hereof, Buyer is able to pay all indebtedness of Buyer as such indebtedness matures.

ARTICLE IV

COVENANTS

SECTION 4.1 Conduct of Products Business. Except as contemplated by this Agreement or to the extent that Buyer shall otherwise consent in writing, from the date of this Agreement until the Closing, Seller covenants and agrees that Seller shall conduct the Products Business in the ordinary course consistent with past practice since October 1, 2000, including the operation of the day-to-day affairs of the Products Business by its current managers, and the Business Managers shall take no action inconsistent therewith.

SECTION 4.2 Cooperation in Operations of the Products Business. During the period from the date hereof through the Closing Date, Seller shall provide Buyer and Buyer's officers, directors and employees full access to the operation and management of the Products Business and the right to participate, where commercially practicable, in the operations, management and decision-making processes of the Products Business.

A-12

SECTION 4.3 Proxy Statement; Fairness Opinion. As promptly as practicable after the execution of this Agreement, Seller shall, at its expense, use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) prepare the Proxy Statement and all related materials required pursuant to the Exchange Act to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby, (ii) file such materials with the Commission and (iii) call a meeting of Seller's stockholders for the purpose of, among other things, securing the adoption of the sale of the Acquired Assets by the stockholders of Seller in accordance with Seller's certificate of incorporation and bylaws and the Delaware General Corporation Law. Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to have the Proxy Statement declared effective as promptly as practicable by the Commission. Seller's board of directors shall recommend that the Seller's stockholders approve the sale of the Acquired Assets pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and shall state in the Proxy Statement and in a resolution approving the sale of the Acquired Assets that Seller's board of directors deems such sale pursuant to the terms of this Agreement to be in the best interests of the corporation. Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain prior to the mailing of the Proxy Statement a favorable opinion of Southwest Securities Group, Inc., or any other reputable investment banking group, for inclusion in the Proxy Statement as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, to the Seller's stockholders of the Purchase Price.

SECTION 4.4 Access and Information. Until the Closing, Seller shall afford to Buyer and its representatives (including accountants and counsel) full access, during normal business hours, upon reasonable notice and in such manner as will not unreasonably interfere with the conduct of the business of Seller, to all properties, books, records, and Tax Returns of Seller and all other information with respect to the Products Business, together with the opportunity to make copies of such books, records, and other documents and to discuss the Products Business with such officers, directors, managerial personnel, accountants, consultants, and counsel for Seller as Buyer deems reasonably necessary or appropriate, including the right to visit Seller's facilities. In furtherance of the foregoing, Seller shall authorize and instruct its independent public accountants to meet with Buyer and its representatives, including Buyer's independent public accountants, to discuss the business and accounts of Seller and to make available (with the opportunity to make copies) to Buyer and its representatives, including its independent public accountants, all the work papers of its accountants related to their audit or review of the consolidated financial statements and Tax Returns of Seller. From and after the Closing Date, Buyer shall afford Seller access to its books and records or financial reports upon reasonable notice solely to the extent necessary to prepare Seller's Tax Returns, to comply with the requirements of Seller's independent auditors, to comply with Exchange Act or other legal requirements.

SECTION 4.5 Notification of Certain Matters. Each party hereto shall give prompt written notice to the other party of (a) the occurrence, or failure to occur, of any event of which it becomes aware that has caused or that would be likely to cause any representation or warranty of such party contained in this Agreement to be untrue or inaccurate in any material respect at any time from the date hereof to the Closing Date, (b) the failure of such party, or any officer, director, employee, or agent of such party, to comply with or satisfy in any material respect any covenant, condition, or agreement to be complied with or satisfied by it hereunder, and (c) with respect to Seller, the occurrence of any threat made to Seller by any Products Business Manager, or any other key employee, to resign or otherwise terminate their employment or independent contractor relationship with Seller. No such notification shall affect the representations or warranties of the parties or the conditions to their respective obligations hereunder.

SECTION 4.6 Consents. After the date hereof and prior to the Closing, Seller shall use commercially reasonable efforts to (i) obtain the written Consent from any party to any Contract, including each Assumed Contract and any leases related to the Leased Premises, which is required to permit the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, and (ii) obtain all Consents of or from Governmental Entities or Chinese Governmental Entities, as the case may be, necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, (i) the obligation to use "commercially reasonable efforts" shall not obligate either party to expend in excess of $25,000 in the aggregate in obtaining any such Consents (other than obtaining the approval of Seller's stockholders pursuant to the Delaware General Corporation Law and the Exchange Act), and (ii) this Agreement shall not constitute an assignment of any Contract, Acquired Software or License if an attempted assignment thereof, without a Consent, would constitute a breach thereof or in any way adversely affect the rights of Seller (or Buyer as its assignee) thereunder. If such Consent is not obtained, or if any attempt at an assignment thereof would be ineffective or would affect the rights of Seller or Buyer thereunder so that Buyer would not in fact receive all such rights, Seller shall cooperate with Buyer to the extent reasonably necessary to provide for Buyer the benefits under such Contract, Acquired Software or License, including enforcement for the benefit of Buyer of any and all rights against a third party thereto arising out of the breach or cancellation by such third party or otherwise.

SECTION 4.7 Employee Matters.

(a) Transfer of Employees. On or prior to the Closing, Buyer will extend offers of employment to substantially all of the employees of Seller who provide services primarily to the Products Business, and Seller agrees that offers extended by Buyer pursuant to this Section shall not violate or be deemed a breach of Section 4.7(c). Any offers so extended by Buyer shall be on such terms and conditions that Buyer shall determine in its sole discretion. Seller waives any claims against Buyer and any of Seller's employees who are extended an offer of employment by Buyer arising from such employment by Buyer including any claims arising under any employment agreement, confidentiality agreement, intellectual property agreement or non-competition agreement between such person and Seller.

(b) Accrued Vacation. Buyer shall assume, on the date each such person accepts an offer of employment with Buyer, liability for vacation accrued by Seller for all of Seller's employees hired by Buyer pursuant to Section 4.7(a). Seller shall provide Buyer a true and correct accounting of all accrued vacation of such persons within fifteen (15) days of such hiring. The original principal amount of the Notes shall be reduced by the full aggregate value of all such accrued vacation assumed by Buyer. If the original principal amount of the Notes is so decreased, then Note A shall be decreased until the original principal amount of Note A is $0.00 and, thereafter, Note B shall be decreased. All adjustments to the Notes under this Section shall be cumulative with all other adjustments to the Notes. All interest accrued on such Notes shall be recomputed as if the principal amount of such Notes had been such adjusted amount from and as of the Closing Date. Seller agrees to take all steps necessary to reasonably document any adjustment of the Notes under this Section.

(c) Non-Solicitation of Employees. Each party recognizes that the employees of the other party are its primary and most important asset. Except as set forth in subsection (a) above, for twelve (12) months following the Closing, each party agrees not to (i) induce, entice or attempt to hire or employ, directly or indirectly, any employee of the other party or its affiliates on behalf of such party or any other person, (ii) induce or attempt to induce any employee of the other party or its affiliates to leave the employ or cease doing business with the other party or its affiliates, or (iii) induce or attempt to induce any individual or entity to violate these provisions; provided, that the foregoing shall not prevent either party from employing any person for whom such party has evidence that such person responded to a mass media solicitation or advertisement that is not directed at employees of the other party.

SECTION 4.8 Risk of Loss.

(a) The risk of any loss, damage, impairment, confiscation, or condemnation of any of the Acquired Assets from any cause whatsoever shall be borne by Seller at all times prior to the Closing. In the event of any such loss, damage, impairment, confiscation, or condemnation, whether or not covered by insurance, Seller shall promptly notify Buyer of such loss, damage, impairment, confiscation, or condemnation, which notice shall provide an estimate of the costs to repair, restore or replace such Acquired Assets and shall state whether Seller intends to repair, restore or replace such assets.

(b) If Seller, at its expense, repairs, replaces, or restores such Acquired Assets to their prior condition to the satisfaction of Buyer before the Closing, Seller shall be entitled to all insurance proceeds and condemnation awards, if any, by reason of such award or loss.

(c) If Seller does not or cannot restore or replace lost, damaged, impaired, confiscated or condemned Acquired Assets, Buyer may at its option:

(i) terminate this Agreement by notice forthwith without any further obligation hereunder and without further liability to Buyer if the replacement cost of such Acquired Assets exceeds $250,000 in the aggregate; or

A-14

(ii) proceed to the Closing of this Agreement without Seller completing the restoration and replacement of such Acquired Assets, provided that Seller shall assign all rights under applicable insurance policies and condemnation awards, if any, to Buyer and that the Purchase Price shall be reduced by the repair or replacement costs of any Acquired Asset to the extent not covered by such insurance proceeds or condemnation award, and in such event, Seller shall have no further liability with respect to the condition of the Acquired Assets directly attributable to the loss, damage, impairment, confiscation, or condemnation.

(d) Buyer will notify Seller of a decision under the options described in Section 4.8(c) above within five (5) business days after Seller's notice to Buyer of the damage or destruction of Acquired Assets; provided, that if Seller states that it intends to restore the damaged Acquired Assets and if Seller has not restored such damaged Acquired Assets immediately prior to the Closing Date, notwithstanding Buyer's prior delivery of a notice to proceed pursuant to this Section, Buyer shall have the right to either postpone the Closing or terminate this Agreement by notice forthwith.

SECTION 4.9 Buyer's Board of Directors. Until the earlier of (i) the date that Buyer first becomes subject to the reporting requirements of the Exchange Act, (ii) the acquisition of Buyer, whether by sale of assets, merger or otherwise, or (iii) the sale, transfer, gift and distribution by Seller to any other person of 50% or more of the Common Stock, Buyer shall take all actions within its power, including calling meetings, soliciting written consents and making nominations, to have elected to Buyer's board of directors, and to maintain on Buyer's board of directors, one member nominated by Seller, provided that such nominee is reasonably acceptable to a majority of the other members of Buyer's board of directors.

SECTION 4.10 Financing. From the date hereof until the earlier of the Closing or the termination of this Agreement, Buyer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain debt or equity financing that meets the requirements set forth in Section 5.2(h).

SECTION 4.11 Additional Agreements. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of the parties hereto will use all commercially reasonable efforts to do, or cause to be taken all action and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper, or advisable under Applicable Laws and regulations to consummate and make effective the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. If at any time after the Closing Date, any further action is necessary or desirable to carry out the purposes of this Agreement, the parties to this Agreement and their duly authorized representatives shall take all such action. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, if, after the Closing Date, Buyer seeks indemnification or recovery from one or more other parties to an Assumed Contract or otherwise seeks to enforce such Assumed Contract and, in order to obtain such indemnification, recovery or enforcement, it is necessary for Seller to initiate a suit, participate in any enforcement proceeding or otherwise provide assistance to Buyer, then, at the request and the sole expense of Buyer, Seller shall take such action as Buyer may reasonably request in connection with Buyer's efforts to obtain such indemnification, recovery or enforcement.

(d) by Seller if either (i) Buyer shall not have delivered a commitment or other written document for financing of Buyer that meets the requirements of Section 5.2(h) such that Southwest Securities Group, Inc. is able to deliver the fairness opinion described in Section 4.3 on or prior to the date of the mailing of the Proxy Statement, or (ii) such commitment or other writing expires or are rescinded and are not replaced by similar commitments or writings; or

(e) by Seller following receipt of a proposal from an unaffiliated third party involving (i) a purchase, lease, exchange or transfer of the Acquired Assets or all or substantially all of the assets of Seller, or (ii) any merger, consolidation, share exchange or similar transaction for the acquisition of Seller, and the determination by Seller's board of directors that such proposal is more beneficial to Seller's stockholders than the transactions contemplated herein.

Notwithstanding anything in the foregoing to the contrary, no party that is in material breach of this Agreement shall be entitled to terminate this Agreement except with the consent of the other party.

SECTION 6.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of a termination of this Agreement by either Seller or Buyer as provided above, there shall be no liability on the part of either Buyer or Seller, except for the respective break-up fees described in Section 6.3. This ARTICLE VI shall survive the termination of this Agreement. Except as provided in Section 6.3 below, each of the parties hereto shall be responsible for its own expenses and those of its advisors, and no party hereto, nor any of their Affiliates, shall be responsible to the other parties, or any of their Affiliates, for any expenses relating to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

SECTION 6.3 Break-Up Fees. Upon any termination of this Agreement by Seller based on Buyer's breach of this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(b)(i), Buyer shall pay to Seller a break-up fee in the amount of $100,000. Upon any termination of this Agreement by Buyer based on Seller's breach of this Agreement pursuant to Section 6.1(b)(i) or by Seller pursuant to Section 6.1(b)(iii), Section 6.1(b)(iv) or Section 6.1(e), Seller shall pay the total sum of the following as a break-up fee: (i) to Buyer, all reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses of Buyer and its advisors, including the reasonable fees and expenses of Buyer's counsel, independent accountants, investment advisors and consultants and any bank fees, placement fees or appraisal fees incurred by Buyer, not to exceed, in the aggregate, $100,000,

(ii) to

A-18

Buyer, cash in the amount of $100,000, (iii) to Daniel F. Nix, cash in the amount of $42,000, and (iv) to Richard P. Ford, cash in the amount of $32,500; provided, that Seller shall not be liable for such break-up fee if this Agreement is terminated by Seller pursuant to Section 6.1(d) or due to Buyer's failure to obtain debt or equity financing that meets the requirements of Section 5.2(h).

ARTICLE VII

INDEMNIFICATION

SECTION 7.1 Indemnification of Buyer. Subject to the provisions of this ARTICLE VII, Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer and each officer, director and Affiliate of Buyer (the "Buyer Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all damages, losses, claims, liabilities, demands, charges, interest, suits, penalties, costs, and expenses (including court costs, reasonable attorneys' fees and other expenses incurred in investigating and preparing for, or otherwise in connection with, any litigation or proceeding) ("Losses") that any of the Buyer Indemnified Parties incurs and that relate to, result from or arise out of:

(a) any and all liabilities arising under the Assumed Contracts which relate to events occurring prior to the Closing Date;

(b) any breach or default by Seller of any of the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements under this Agreement or any other agreement or document executed in connection herewith;

(c) any claim, action, suit, proceeding, grievance or arbitration set forth on Section 3.1(f) of the Disclosure Schedule;

(d) any and all obligations or liabilities under any Excluded Contract;

(e) any action, claim, proceeding or demand by a third party based on Seller's failure to comply with all requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and the Exchange Act or any statement made or failed to be made in any filing or communication governed thereby; and

(f) any law or contract with respect to each (i) Employee Benefit Plan and all associated contracts and documents, (ii) employee benefit plan (as such term is described in Section 3(3) of ERISA), which is or was sponsored, maintained, or contributed to by any Commonly Controlled Entity either presently or at any time and all associated contracts and documents, and (iii) employee and former employee of Seller or any Commonly Controlled Entity, in connection with any event commencing, occurring, or failing to occur on or prior to the Closing Date, unless such event occurred or failed to occur based on the actions or under the supervision of the Business Managers.

SECTION 7.2 Indemnification of Seller. Subject to the provisions of this ARTICLE VII, Buyer shall indemnify and hold harmless Seller and each officer, director and Affiliate of Seller (the "Seller Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Losses that any of the Seller Indemnified Parties incurs and that relate to, result from or arise out of:

(a) any and all liabilities arising under the Assumed Contracts which relate to events occurring after the Closing Date and any and all liabilities arising under the Assumed Liabilities;

(b) any breach or default by Buyer of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement under this Agreement or any agreement or document executed in connection herewith; and

(c) the WARN Act with respect to actions taken by Buyer after the Closing Date.

SECTION 7.3 Defense of Third-Party Claims. A Buyer Indemnified Party or a Seller Indemnified Party, as the case may be (an "Indemnified Party") shall give prompt written notice to any entity or person who is obligated to provide indemnification hereunder (an "Indemnifying Party") of the commencement or assertion of any action, proceeding, demand, or claim by a third party

(collectively, a "third-party action") in respect of which such Indemnified Party shall seek indemnification hereunder. Any failure so to notify an Indemnifying Party shall not relieve such Indemnifying Party from any liability that it may have to such Indemnified Party under this ARTICLE VII except to the extent (and solely to the extent) that the failure to give such notice materially and adversely prejudices such Indemnifying

Party. The Indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume control of the defense of, settle, or otherwise dispose of such third-party action on such terms as it deems appropriate; provided, that:

(a) The Indemnified Party shall be entitled, at its own expense, to participate in the defense of such third-party action (provided, that the Indemnifying Party shall pay the attorneys' fees of the Indemnified Party if (i) the employment of separate counsel shall have been authorized in writing by such Indemnifying Party in connection with the defense of such third-party action, (ii) the Indemnifying Party shall not have employed counsel reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnified Party to have charge of such third-party action, (iii) the Indemnified Party shall have reasonably concluded that there may be defenses available to such Indemnified Party that are different from or additional to those available to the Indemnifying Party, or (iv) the Indemnified Party's counsel shall have advised the Indemnified Party in writing, with a copy delivered to the Indemnifying Party, that there is a conflict of interest that could make it inappropriate under applicable standards of professional conduct to have common counsel);

(b) The Indemnifying Party shall obtain the prior written approval of the Indemnified Party before entering into or making any settlement, compromise, admission, or acknowledgment of the validity of such third-party action or any liability in respect thereof if, pursuant to or as a result of such settlement, compromise, admission, or acknowledgment, injunctive or other equitable relief would be imposed against the Indemnified Party or if, in the opinion of the Indemnified Party, such settlement, compromise, admission, or acknowledgment could have an adverse effect on its business;

(c) No Indemnifying Party or Indemnified Party shall consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by each claimant or plaintiff to each Indemnified Party and Indemnifying Party of a release from all liability in respect of such third-party action; and

(d) The Indemnifying Party shall not be entitled to control (but shall be entitled to participate at its own expense in the defense of), and the Indemnified Party shall be entitled to have sole control over, the defense or settlement, compromise, admission, or acknowledgment of any third-party action (i) as to which the Indemnifying Party fails to assume the defense within 30 days after notice thereof, or (ii) to the extent the third-party action seeks an order, injunction, or other equitable relief against the Indemnified Party which, if successful, would materially adversely affect the business, operations, assets, or financial condition of the Indemnified Party; provided, that the Indemnified Party shall make no settlement, compromise, admission, or acknowledgment that would give rise to liability on the part of any Indemnifying Party without the prior written consent of such Indemnifying Party.

The parties hereto shall extend reasonable cooperation in connection with the defense of any third-party action pursuant to this ARTICLE VII and, in connection therewith, shall furnish such records, information, and testimony and attend such conferences, discovery proceedings, hearings, trials, and appeals as may be reasonably requested.

SECTION 7.4 Direct Claims. In any case in which an Indemnified Party seeks indemnification hereunder which is not subject to Section 7.3 because no third-party action is involved, the Indemnified Party shall notify the Indemnifying Party in writing of any Losses which such Indemnified Party claims are subject to indemnification under the terms hereof. The failure of the Indemnified Party to exercise promptness in such notification shall not amount to a waiver of such claim unless the resulting delay materially prejudices the position of the Indemnifying Party with respect to such claim.

SECTION 7.5 Limitations on Indemnification; Sole Remedy. With respect to Losses arising from Section 7.1(c), from a breach or default by Seller of the representations and warranties set forth in Section 3.1(m), or claims for payment of Purchase Price, including the Notes, there shall be no limitations on indemnification, such Losses shall be payable in cash and the remainder of this Section shall not apply to such Losses. Notwithstanding the provisions of this ARTICLE VII (other than the immediately preceding sentence), neither Indemnifying Party shall be obligated to indemnify any Indemnified Party until the aggregate amount of Losses for which such Indemnifying Party shall be liable for under this ARTICLE VII exceeds $100,000. Notwithstanding the provisions of this ARTICLE VII (other than the first sentence of this section), Seller shall not be obligated to indemnify any Buyer Indemnified Party for any Losses in excess of $500,000 and Buyer shall not be obligated to indemnify any Seller Indemnified

Party for Losses in excess of $500,000. Any indemnification obligation of Seller shall be paid by offset against any remaining principal and accrued but unpaid interest on Note B. Any indemnification obligation of Buyer hereunder shall be paid by increasing the aggregate principal amount of Note B. From and after the Closing, the indemnification obligations set forth in this ARTICLE VII shall be the sole and exclusive remedy of the Indemnified Parties for (i) any failure of either party to perform its obligations under this Agreement or (ii) any breach of a representation, warranty, covenant or agreement of a party contained in this Agreement, including the Exhibits and Schedules hereto.

SECTION 7.6 Offset Against Note B. Seller hereby agrees that to the extent any Buyer Indemnified Party is entitled to indemnification hereunder by offset against Note B pursuant to Section 7.5, such Losses may be offset against the remaining aggregate principal amount of Note B and any accrued but unpaid interest or any other amounts due pursuant to Note B. Any such offset may be applied against such principal, interest or other amounts in such order as Buyer elects in its sole discretion. All adjustments to Note B under this Section shall be cumulative with all other adjustments to Note B. Seller hereby waives diligence, presentment, demand, protest and notice of every kind whatsoever in connection with any such offset, except as specifically provided above.

ARTICLE VIII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

SECTION 8.1 Survival of Representations, Warranties, and Covenants. Regardless of any investigation at any time made by or on behalf of any party hereto or of any information any party may have in respect thereof, each of the representations and warranties made hereunder or pursuant hereto or in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby shall survive the Closing for a period of eighteen (18) months. To the extent that such are performable after the Closing, each of the covenants and agreements contained in each of the Transaction Documents shall survive the Closing indefinitely.

SECTION 8.2 Further Actions. After the Closing Date, Seller shall execute and deliver such other certificates, agreements, conveyances, and other documents, and take such other action, as may be reasonably requested by Buyer in order to transfer and assign to, and vest in, Buyer the Acquired Assets pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.3 Amendment and Modification. This Agreement may not be amended except by an instrument in writing signed by the parties hereto.

SECTION 8.4 Waiver of Compliance. Any failure of Buyer on the one hand, or Seller, on the other hand, to comply with any obligation, covenant, agreement, or condition contained herein may be waived only if set forth in an instrument in writing signed by the party or parties to be bound thereby, but such waiver or failure to insist upon strict compliance with such obligation, covenant, agreement or condition shall not operate as a waiver of, or estoppel with respect to, any other failure.

SECTION 8.5 Specific Performance. The parties recognize that in the event either party should refuse to perform under the provisions of this Agreement, monetary damages alone will not be adequate. Each party shall therefore be entitled, in addition to any other remedies which may be available, including money damages, to obtain specific performance of the terms of this Agreement. In the event of any action to enforce this Agreement specifically, each party hereby waives the defense that there is an adequate remedy at law.

SECTION 8.6 Severability. If any term or other provision of this Agreement is invalid, illegal, or incapable of being enforced by any rule of Applicable Law, or public policy, all other conditions and provisions of this Agreement shall nevertheless remain in full force and effect so long as the economic or legal substance of the transactions contemplated herein are not affected in any manner materially adverse to any party. Upon such determination that any term or other provision is invalid, illegal, or incapable of being enforced, the court or other Governmental Authority making such determination is authorized and instructed to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the parties as closely as possible in order that the transactions contemplated herein are consummated as originally contemplated to the fullest extent possible.

A-21

SECTION 8.7 Expenses and Obligations. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement or as provided by law, all costs and expenses incurred by the parties hereto in connection with the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby shall be borne solely and entirely by the party which has incurred such expenses. Notwithstanding the foregoing, all sales Taxes arising out of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall be paid by Seller. In the event of a dispute between the parties in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, each of the parties hereto hereby agrees that the prevailing party shall be entitled to reimbursement by the other party of reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred in connection with any action or proceeding.

SECTION 8.8 Parties in Interest. This Agreement shall be binding upon and, except as provided below, inure solely to the benefit of each party hereto and their successors and assigns, and nothing in this Agreement, except as set forth below, express or implied, is intended to confer upon any other person (other than the Indemnified Parties as provided in ARTICLE VII) any rights or remedies of any nature whatsoever under or by reason of this Agreement.

SECTION 8.12 Governing Law; Venue. THIS AGREEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY AND CONSTRUED IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS. EACH OF BUYER AND SELLER SUBMITS TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF THE STATE AND FEDERAL COURTS LOCATED IN TRAVIS COUNTY, IN THE STATE OF TEXAS.

Notwithstanding anything to contrary in this Section, Seller shall be permitted to file this Agreement and to describe the transactions contemplated hereby in a Current Report on Form 8-K or Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed under the Exchange Act.

SECTION 8.14 Confidentiality. Each party hereto agrees that it will keep confidential and will not disclose or divulge any confidential, proprietary or secret information which such party may obtain from the other party pursuant to this Agreement or otherwise, or pursuant to visitation or inspection rights granted hereunder, unless such information is known, or until such information becomes known, to the public; provided, that a party may disclose such information (i) to its attorneys, accountants, consultants and other professionals to the extent necessary to obtain their services in connection with this Agreement as long as such attorneys, accountants, consultants and other professional are informed of the confidential nature of such information, (ii) if required or compelled by law or regulation, to the extent advised by an opinion of counsel that such disclosure is necessary or required, or (iii) with the prior review and approval of Buyer, by Seller in a press release relating to the execution hereof and in the related Form 8-K and in the Proxy Statement.

SECTION 8.15 Assignment. Neither this Agreement nor any of the rights, interests, or obligations hereunder shall be assigned by any of the parties hereto, whether by operation of law or otherwise; provided, that nothing in this Agreement shall limit Buyer's ability to make a collateral assignment of its rights under this Agreement to any institutional lender that provides funds to Buyer without the consent of Seller. Seller shall execute an acknowledgment of such assignment(s) and collateral assignments in such forms as Buyer or its lenders may from time to time reasonably request; provided, further, that unless written notice is given to Seller that any such collateral assignment has been foreclosed upon, Seller shall be entitled to deal exclusively with Buyer as to any matters arising under this Agreement or any of the other agreements delivered pursuant hereto. In the event of such an assignment, the provisions of this Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding on Buyer's assigns.

ANNEX C

FAIRNESS OPINION OF SWS SECURITIES, INC.

ANNEX D

VTEL CORPORATION
AUDIT COMMITTEE CHARTER

PURPOSE

This charter governs the operations of the audit committee. The audit committee shall assist the board of directors in fulfilling their oversight responsibility to the stockholders, the investment community, and others relating to the Company's financial statements and the financial reporting process, the systems of internal accounting and financial controls, the internal audit function, the annual independent audit of the Company's financial statements, and legal compliance.

ORGANIZATION AND COMPOSITION

The committee shall be appointed by the board of directors and shall include at least three directors, each of whom will be free from any financial, family or other material relationship that would interfere with the exercise of his or her independence from management or the Company. All committee members shall be financially literate, or shall become financially literate within a reasonable period of time after appointment to the committee, and at least one member shall have accounting or related financial management expertise.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND PROCESSES

The primary responsibility of the audit committee is to oversee the Company's financial reporting process on behalf of the board and to report the results of their activities to the board. In order to best react to changing conditions and circumstances, the committee believes its policies and procedures should remain flexible. The following includes, but does not limit, the audit committee's primary processes in carrying out its oversight responsibilities. These processes may be supplemented when deemed appropriate.

GENERAL

The committee shall meet at least once a quarter and shall at all times maintain and facilitate open communications between the committee, independent auditors, the internal audit staff and management of the Company. In discharging its oversight role, the committee has the power to conduct or to authorize investigations into any matter brought to its attention with full access to all books, records, facilities, and personnel of the Company. The committee may retain outside counsel or other experts for this purpose. Also, the committee shall review any legal matters which may have a material effect on the Company's financial statements.

CHARTER AND INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The committee shall adopt a formally written charter, which will be approved by the full board. The independent auditors are ultimately accountable to the board and to the audit committee. Therefore, the committee shall have the ultimate authority and responsibility to select, evaluate, and replace the independent auditors. The committee shall review the auditors' effectiveness, review and approve their fees and discuss with the auditors their independence from management and the Company and other matters as required by the Independence Standards Board. At least annually, the committee shall review and reassess the committee's charter and recommend to the board the selection of the Company's independent auditors.

INTERNAL ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL CONTROLS & AUDIT SCOPES

The committee shall discuss with the internal audit staff and the independent auditors the overall scope and plans for their respective audits to promote an effective use of resources, to ensure completeness of coverage and to prevent any duplication of effort. Also, the committee shall discuss with management, the internal audit staff, and the independent auditors the adequacy and effectiveness of the internal accounting and financial controls, including the Company's system to monitor and manage business risk, and legal compliance. Further, the committee shall meet separately with the internal audit staff and the independent auditors, with and without management present, to discuss any significant findings and recommendations made by the auditors and management's responses to them.

INTERIM FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The committee, or at least the chair of the committee, shall review with management and the independent auditors the interim financial statements prior to the filing of the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q. Also, the committee shall discuss the results of the quarterly review and any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the independent auditors, including the impact of significant events, transactions, and changes in accounting estimates considered by the accountant in performing the review.

ANNUAL FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The committee shall review with management and the independent auditors the financial statements to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K or the annual report to stockholders if distributed prior to the filing of Form 10-K. The review shall include the auditors' judgment about the quality and consistency, not just acceptability, of the Company's accounting principles and their applications, the reasonableness of significant judgments, and the clarity and completeness of the financial statements' disclosures. Also, the committee shall discuss the results of the annual audit, any difficulties or disputes with management during the course of the audit, and any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the independent auditors under generally accepted auditing standards.

REQUIRED REPORTS AND STATEMENTS

The committee shall report that it has reviewed the audited financial statements with management, received written communication from the independent auditors regarding their independence, discussed other required matters with the independent auditors, and recommended to the board that the audited financial statements be included in the Company's Form 10-K based on the above review and discussions. Additionally, the committee shall disclose the adoption of its charter and the committee's composition as it relates to independence, financial literacy, and expertise of its members.
