PRELIMINARY COPY, DATED MAY 12, 2009
FORGENT NETWORKS, INC.
SPECIAL MEETING OF STOCKHOLDERS
JUNE 2, 2009

PROXY STATEMENT OF RED OAK IN OPPOSITION TO THE MANAGEMENT OF FORGENT NETWORKS, INC.

WHY YOU WERE SENT THIS PROXY STATEMENT

This proxy statement is being furnished to holders of the common stock of Forgent Networks, Inc. (“ASUR” or the “Company”) in connection with the solicitation of proxies by Red Oak Partners, LLC, The Red Oak Fund, L.P., Pinnacle Fund LLP, Pinnacle Partners LLC, Bear Market Opportunity Fund, L.P. and David Sandberg, whom we refer to collectively as “Red Oak” in this proxy statement, to be used at the Special Meeting of Stockholders (the “Special Meeting”) of ASUR. The Special Meeting will be held at 10 A.M., on June 2, 2009, at the Company's executive offices, 108 Wild Basin Road, Austin, Texas 78746. At the Special Meeting, ASUR is seeking stockholder approval of a 1-for-750 reverse stock split, a 750-for-1 forward stock split (if the reverse stock split is approved), and to approve the postponement or adjournment of the special meeting in the event an insufficient number of shares are present to approve the reverse/forward split. We refer to these as the “Go-Private Proposals” because their effect would be to terminate the Company's status as a reporting company under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, terminate its listed status and thereby deprive the stockholders of readily available information and further limit trading opportunities. The Company's proxy statement dated April 20, 2009 contains information regarding the Go-Private Proposals, including a description of the material features of the Go-Private plan, and the voting procedures to be followed at the Special Meeting. These items are listed as proposals 1 through 3 in the Company proxy statement.

Red Oak is soliciting proxies AGAINST the approval of the Go-Private Proposals for the reasons noted in this proxy statement. We urge you to vote AGAINST approving the Go-Private Proposals. We are not at this time sending you a separate proxy card granting us your proxy, because you can vote against the Go-Private Proposals by checking the “AGAINST” box on the Company's proxy card.

Red Oak beneficially owns an aggregate of 2,285,796 shares of ASUR's total outstanding common stock. Red Oak and its affiliates are ASUR's largest stockholder. Red Oak owns approximately 7.3% of ASUR's total outstanding common stock and 7.5% of the common stock held by the public (namely, the common stock held by stockholders other than the board and management) based on the Company's statement that as of April 16, 2009 there were 31,106,298 shares outstanding.

With regard to stockholder approval of the Go-Private Proposals, the stock exchange rules governing the voting of shares held by brokerage firms for their customers preclude a vote on non-routine matters unless the stockholder gives instructions. Red Oak believes the Go-Private Proposals are not routine. In addition, to approve proposals 1 and 2 requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the Company's outstanding shares. SO YOUR VOTE COUNTS!

The persons and entities which constitute Red Oak are described below in the section entitled “Certain Information Regarding the Participants.” This proxy statement sometimes refers to Red Oak as “we,” “us,” “our” and variants of those words.

The principal executive offices of ASUR are located at 108 Wild Basin Road, Austin, Texas 78746. This proxy statement is first being mailed to stockholders on or about May __, 2009.

WE ARE OPPOSING THE GO-PRIVATE PROPOSALS BECAUSE:

- (1) Taking ASUR private is likely to result in severely limited liquidity for remaining shareholders.
- (2) The benefits claimed by the Company from implementing this proposal can for the most part be obtained without depriving the stockholders of a public market.
- (3) Paying out $0.36 per share to only certain holders is wasteful and unfair.

We believe that the attempt to take the Company private is not in the best interest of stockholders. It will eliminate the requirement that stockholders and the public receive regular financial disclosure and will cause the Company's shares to be removed from NASDAQ. The lack of listing and the non-availability of public financial information is highly likely to result in a lack of liquidity for stockholders wishing to sell and to limit the Company's access to additional capital if needed. Although there can be no assurance the Company shares will continue to be listed on NASDAQ if the Go-private Proposals are defeated, there will still be more opportunities for liquidity if financial information continues to be publicly available. If Red Oak's suggestion for a less drastic stock split is implemented and results in a stock price in excess of $1.00, the Company could remain listed on NASDAQ, which would provide public availability of price quotations and should provide a greater opportunity for holders to sell shares. Even if the Company's NASDAQ listing is not maintained, Red Oak believes that brokers will be more likely to provide quotations in the Pink Sheets for a company having readily available public financial information. Red Oak notes that Financial Industry Regulatory Authority Rule 6440 requires a broker to ascertain that there is adequate information available before making a market in a non-listed stock. Further, Red Oak notes that under Regulation T Section 220.2, if NASDAQ listing is maintained, brokers would be permitted to extend credit for purchases of Company shares. However, if the Company shares were only tradable over the counter, Regulation T could prohibit brokers from extending credit to buy Company shares.

The Company has attempted to justify these drastic measures by claiming they will result in reduced costs. We agree the Company spends too much but believe the claimed cost savings can be largely achieved without the detriment to the shareholders resulting from the Go-Private Proposals.

WHAT RED OAK WANTS

We agree that actions to enhance stockholder value are needed, and if the Go-Private Proposals are defeated we will seek to work with the existing board of directors, or to elect new directors who will seek to advance this goal. Even if the Go-Private Proposals are adopted we presently intend to nominate a slate of directors for election at the next Company annual meeting which will be comprised of shareholders holding or recommended by persons holding investments of 3% or more in the Company. Red Oak is not seeking to control the Company, and intends that a majority of the nominees will be persons not affiliated with Red Oak.

Red Oak believes that the Company's value can be enhanced by taking some or all of the following actions:

- Rightsizing the Company's compensation beginning from the top down. The Company should combine the CEO and COO functions immediately as we firmly believe the Company does not require a CEO separate from the COO.
- According to the Company's proxy statement filed in 2008, the CEO/COO and CFO functions were paid nearly $1 million in FY 2007 and have been paid salaries nearly equal to the Company's entire current market capitalization value since 2003. This level of spending must be reduced to align with ASUR's level of profitability. Further, with an estimated $6 million/year in compensation expense across roughly 55 US employees and 40 employees in India, we believe the average US Employee earns more than $90,000/year, an amount we also believe must be managed better.¹

¹ Red Oak made this estimate based on information which Jay Peterson, the Company's chief financial officer gave Red Oak on April 27. Mr. Peterson said that the Company spends approximately $6 million per year on compensation expenses. He also revealed the number of employees based in the United States and India at that meeting. In discussing typical Indian employment costs with a business executive familiar with the market, Red Oak learned that the Company would likely spend approximately $25,000 per Indian employee per year, or approximately $1 million total each year, which leaves a total of $5 million per year for the Company's approximately 55 U.S. employees. This indicates an average compensation of more than $90,000 per U.S. employee per year. Red Oak does not know the actual number of U.S. employees who receive salaries in excess of $90,000, but believes that if clerical employees are compensated at a lower rate, there would be a number of employees earning in excess of this average. If the compensation disclosed in the Company's most recent 10-K for the Company's three most highly compensated executives for the 2008 fiscal year of approximately $840,000 is subtracted from the $5 million figure, the remaining approximately 52 U.S. employees received an average compensation of slightly more than $80,000 per year.

- The Company should realign service provider costs, including terminating Ernst & Young as auditor, Winstead PC as legal counsel, and immediately repricing ASUR's egregious $360,000/year D&O policy. A company of ASUR's size should retain less expensive advisors. We note that in its Company proxy statement, ASUR claims to pay more than $150,000/year in legal bills related to being a public company. We are confident this can be reduced by a significant amount while the Company remains public.
- The Company should implement a reverse stock split in order to regain NASDAQ compliance with respect to a $1/share price. We recommend a 10-for-1 split, which would leave ASUR with just over 3 million shares outstanding and could produce a price above $1/share.
- The Company should adopt a significant share repurchase program which would offer further liquidity to those shareholders who wish to sell while simultaneously allowing for accretive purchase transactions for the benefit of remaining shareholders.
- The Company should hold annual meetings in a timely manner subsequent to each fiscal year end. We note that with a July fiscal year end, ASUR's 2009 annual meeting should have occurred in the March or April time frame. No such meeting has yet been announced and shareholders should be granted their rights to such a meeting on a regular – and timely – basis. We believe it's in shareholders' best interests to hold the 2009 meeting as soon as possible.
- The Company should elect a board comprised of shareholders with vested interests. The current Board and management team hold a combined 2.3% of ASUR's common stock, which is less than numerous individual shareholders and institutions. We do not believe that a board with low ownership delaying its annual meetings represents good corporate governance. As noted above, we do not seek to control the Board and welcome a board of independent holders.

Red Oak has met and spoken with certain members of senior management and the Board of the Company several times during 2009. During those discussions we made recommendations on ways for ASUR to enhance shareholder value, as discussed above.

BACKGROUND OF THIS SOLICITATION

Red Oak first learned about the "going private" proposal when the Company issued a press release on January 29, 2009. Red Oak attempted to contact the Company by an email sent on January 29, 2009 to Mr. Jay Peterson, the Company's Chief Financial Officer, asking the Company to convene a meeting with significant shareholders to discuss this concern. Mr. Peterson indicated that the Company would be willing to hold a discussion after it had filed proxy materials. After several other emails, Red Oak and Mr. Snyder, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, spoke by telephone on February 2, 2009 and Red Oak asked why significant holders had not been consulted about the proposal or at least invited to comment during a public "earnings" or similar call. Later in February, Red Oak requested a further discussion but was told by Mr. Peterson in an email that he was too busy working with the auditors and suggested additional discussion via email. After Red Oak again requested a direct conversation and noted that it had spoken to five other holders, a second telephone conversation was held with Mr. Peterson and Mr. Snyder on March 5, primarily to discuss the Company's strategic plans and the roles played by the executive officers. During this call Red Oak asked why the 2009 annual meeting was not being combined with the special meeting to vote on "going private" and was told the Company counsel believed the stockholders would be confused by two separate votes. Red Oak expressed the view that this was inconsistent with the announced goal to save costs.

On April 17, 2009, Red Oak sent a letter to one of the Company's directors expressing continued concern about the proposal to end the Company's reporting status, what Red Oak viewed as excessive costs, and stating an intent to nominate a slate of directors at the next annual meeting, and asked him to discuss it with the other directors. Because Red Oak had decided to influence the composition of the Company's board of directors or management, that letter was attached to Red Oak's filing on Schedule 13D made on April 20, 2009. On April 22, Mr. Snyder telephoned Red Oak and an informal meeting was arranged, which Red Oak confirmed by the following email:

"Thank you for your call today. As per dates you provided, James Gladney (fellow ASUR shareholder) and I would be happy to meet with ASUR's Board this Monday, April 27th in Dallas.

We wish to confirm the following agenda, as agreed to during our call today:

To review Pinnacle Funds letter issued to ASUR's Board and dated April 17th and allow for ASUR to respond to any of our statements which it does not agree with. We attempted to utilize facts alone for the entire composition of our letter. However, we fully wish for more effective communication between ASUR and its shareholders and are both receptive to and would appreciate clarification from ASUR as it relates to points addressed in the letter.

To review ASUR management's current business plan. As per your comment during our call today that we did not understand the costs, liabilities, and future business plan going forward, we agreed that it would be highly beneficial for you to share this.

To review alternatives proposed by us in contrast to the current operating plan.

One other key point - our letter was sent to your Director on April 17th. Today is April 22nd and - given it was sent to the Board days ago and thus they have been aware of our sense of urgency for consideration of change - we believe it would be imprudent to issue a press release and spend monies on proxies in advance of our meeting. Under the assumption that our meeting constitutes a constructive forum between the Board and large shareholders/ owners of the business, such an announcement in advance of our meeting would compromise the timing and purpose of our communication with the Board. We are hopeful of meeting in a civil and mutually constructive manner, inclusive of our flying to Dallas on short notice to meet with the Board. Additionally, we do not believe that holding off the press release or mailing of proxies for one week (or less) will compromise ASUR or its shareholders in any way whatsoever. However, spending this money on legal, mailing, and filings costs now may very possibly reflect unnecessary spend as well as having to spend additional monies for any possible amendments or undoing of such a transaction if the Board decides - after our meeting - that such changes are warranted. This would constitute wasteful spending, and to the extent that our meeting is to be held in good faith and with the Board having an open mind towards the contents and concerns expressed in our letter, we would sincerely appreciate ASUR holding off on this spend in advance of our meeting. We hope you feel similarly with respect to saving shareholder's money and also the value of communicating with fellow owners of the business.

We look forward to meeting with you on Monday. If you could kindly inform us of a meeting location it would be appreciated. 10 a.m. Dallas time works best given our flight times - please confirm that works as well whenever you have a moment."

At the April 27 meeting, Red Oak asked questions about the Company's expenditures, questioned the level of spending on items such as audit and legal fees, and questioned the proposed savings from the proposal to "go private." Among other items, Mr. Snyder said he intended to resign within the next six months. Certain questions about spending levels could not be answered at the meeting and the Company agreed to provide additional information. After considering the results of the meeting, on May 4, Red Oak decided to request a stockholder list and investigate the possibility of asking stockholders to vote against the going private scheme. Red Oak received the list on May 11 and subsequently on that date emailed the Company to advise that Red Oak would file proxy materials in opposition to the proposed "going private" plan. Although the April 27 meeting was attended by three other holders of company stock, those holders were not asked to join Red Oak in formally opposing the Company's going private plan and have not done so. Red Oak made its own decision about filing proxy materials and is not receiving any financial support from other holders.

WE URGE YOU TO VOTE AGAINST THE GO-PRIVATE PROPOSALS.

WHO CAN VOTE AT THE SPECIAL MEETING

The record date for determining stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the Special Meeting is April 13, 2009 (the "Record Date"). Stockholders of the Company as of the Record Date are entitled to one vote at the Special Meeting for each share of common stock of the Company, $0.01 par value per share (the "Common Stock"), held on the Record Date. The Company stated in its proxy statement that it had 31,106,298 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding on April 16, 2009.

HOW TO VOTE BY PROXY

Whether you plan to attend the Special Meeting or not, we urge you to vote AGAINST the approval of proposals 1, 2 and 3, the Go-Private Proposals, by completing and returning the proxy card which the Company sent to you, or to contact the bank or broker responsible for your account to instruct them as to how you want to vote .

Holders of record can revoke a previously signed proxy by signing, dating and delivering a new proxy to the Company, provided they can obtain another proxy card, or can furnish a written revocation to the Company Secretary. Holders who have used internet voting procedures can follow the procedures specified on the internet voting site. Holders whose shares are held through a broker in "street name" can instruct the broker to change or revoke any instructions previously given for voting their shares. Holders who wish assistance in contacting the Company or their broker can contact MacKenzie Partners, Inc. ("MacKenzie Partners") at [insert number] for assistance or information.

Properly executed proxies will be voted in accordance with the directions indicated thereon. This means if you check "AGAINST" the Company will follow your direction. If you sign the Company's proxy card but do not make any specific choices, the Company-designated proxy holder will vote your shares FOR the Go-Private Proposals.

You should refer to the Company's proxy statement and form of proxy distributed by the Company for additional information about voting procedures.

If any of your shares are held in the name of a brokerage firm, bank, bank nominee or other institution on the record date, only that entity can vote your shares and only upon its receipt of your specific instructions. Accordingly, please contact the person responsible for your account at such entity and instruct that person to execute and return the Company's proxy card on your behalf indicating a vote AGAINST proposals 1, 2 and 3. You should also sign, date and mail the voting instruction form your broker or banker sends you when you receive it (or, if applicable, vote by following the instructions supplied to you by your bank or brokerage firm, including voting by telephone or via the Internet). Please do this for each account you maintain to ensure that all of your shares are voted.

A large number of banks and brokerage firms are participating in a program that allows eligible stockholders to vote by telephone or via the Internet. If your bank or brokerage firm is participating in the telephone voting program or Internet voting program, then such bank or brokerage firm will provide you with instructions for voting by telephone or the Internet on the voting form. Telephone and internet voting procedures, if available through your bank or brokerage firm, are designed to authenticate your identity to allow you to give your voting instructions and to confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded to vote AGAINST proposals 1, 2 and 3. Stockholders voting via the Internet should understand that there might be costs that they must bear associated with electronic access, such as usage charges from Internet access providers and telephone companies. If your bank or brokerage firm does not provide you with a voting form, but you instead receive the Company's proxy card, you should mark the proxy card to indicate a vote AGAINST proposals 1, 2 and 3, date it and sign it, and return it in the Company-provided envelope.

VOTING AND PROXY PROCEDURES

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the shares of Common Stock outstanding entitled to vote at the Special Meeting will constitute a quorum. If you return valid proxy instructions or attend the meeting in person, your shares will be counted for purposes of determining whether there is a quorum, even if you abstain from voting. Broker non-votes also will be counted for purposes for determining the existence of a quorum. A broker non-vote occurs when a broker, bank or other nominee holding shares for a beneficial owner does not vote on a particular proposal because the broker, bank or other nominee does not have discretionary voting power with respect to that item and has not received voting instructions from the beneficial owner.

In voting with respect to proposals 1, 2 and 3, the Go-Private Proposals, you may vote in favor of the proposal, against the proposal or abstain from voting. Proposals 1 and 2 will be approved only if a quorum is present and a majority of the total outstanding shares vote in favor of the proposals. As a result, for proposals 1 and 2 abstentions and broker non-votes will have the effect of a vote against the approval of the Go-Private plan. For this reason the Company has asked in proposal 3 for authority to postpone the meeting and solicit additional votes in favor of the management proposals. We are asking you to vote AGAINST proposal 3, and on proposal 3 the vote of a majority of the shares voting, if a quorum is present, will determine the outcome.

Any proxy may be revoked by you at any time prior to the time a vote is taken by delivering to the Secretary of the Company a notice of revocation bearing a later date, by delivering a duly executed proxy bearing a later date or by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person (but attendance at the Special Meeting will not by itself constitute revocation of a prior-delivered proxy).

Only holders of record as of the close of business on the Record Date will be entitled to vote at the Special Meeting. If you were a stockholder of record on the Record Date, you will retain your voting rights for the Special Meeting even if you sell your shares after the Record Date. Accordingly, it is important that you vote the shares held by you on the Record Date, or grant a proxy to vote such shares, even if you sell such shares after the Record Date.

ALTHOUGH YOU MAY VOTE MORE THAN ONCE, ONLY ONE PROXY WILL BE COUNTED AT THE SPECIAL MEETING, AND THAT WILL BE YOUR LATEST-DATED, VALIDLY EXECUTED PROXY.

The entire expense of preparing and mailing this Proxy Statement and any other soliciting material and the total expenditures relating to the solicitation of proxies (including, without limitation, costs, if any, related to advertising, printing, fees of attorneys, financial advisors, solicitors, accountants, public relations, transportation and litigation) will be borne by Red Oak.
